SEDALIA, Mo., May 20, 1886.

The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church met, according to adjournment, in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Sedalia, Mo., on Thursday, the 20th day of May, 1886, at 11 o'clock A.M., and was opened with a sermon by the Moderator, the Rev. G. T. Stainback, from the following scriptures:

Ecclesiastes ii. 10, 11: "And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labor: and this was my portion of all my labor. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun."

1 Corinthians xv. 58: "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

At the close of public worship the General Assembly took recess till 3 o'clock P.M.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—In pursuance of the appointment of the last General Assembly, constituting me a delegate to the "Centennial Temperance Conference," held in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d and 24th of September, 1885; and, also, authorizing me to prepare a brief history of the status of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on the subject of Temperance, the same to be brought before the said Conference, I beg leave to report the following:

In the good providence of God I was permitted to be present at the opening of the Conference, and attended all its sessions, being the only one there to represent our beloved Church.

Throughout its entire sitting the exercises of the Conference were marked with a very fraternal spirit and a felt zeal for the cause of Temperance.

I was honored with the previleges accorded to the representatives of other Churches in public address.

My paper, setting forth the position of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on the subject of Temperance, was placed in the hands of the Secretary of the Conference, and is now published, along with the other addresses and proceedings of the meeting, by the National Temperance Society, in a volume entitled, "One Hundred Years of Temperance."

Ever praying that our beloved host, battling for the Lord, may never cease to contend for and hold a front rank in Temperance Reform, I am fraternally yours, J. REED MORRIS.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORGANIC UNION.

The General Assembly met, and the following report was read, and then placed upon the docket:

As chairman of your committee appointed at Bentonville, Ark., in May, 1885, to confer with a committee of the Methodist Protestant Church on the subject of the organic union of that Church and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, I opened correspondence with Dr. G. B. McElroy, of Adrian, Michigan, chairman of the committee from the Methodist Protestant Church, soon after the adjournment of the Assembly of 1885. After the exchange of a few letters, Dr. McElroy proposed that the chairmen of the committees should hold a preliminary meeting for the purpose of ascertaining whether it would be necessary for the committees to have a general meeting. After advising with the other members of our committee I accepted the proposition. Dr. McElroy then wrote me that he had requested Dr. F. H. M. Henderson, of Bowdon, Ga., to represent him in that meeting. By agreement Dr. Henderson and myself met in the Quinn House, in the city of Rome, Ga., on the morning of the 31st of December, 1885. The result of that meeting was so acceptable to the members of the two committees that they all expressed a desire that there should be a joint meeting of the committees. Accordingly it was agreed that the committees should meet in the city of Nashville, Tenn., on Thursday, the 13th day of May, 18 6. The committees met according to this appointment, and the result of the meeting is herewith submitted as a part of this report, and is as follows:

"The committees appointed by the General Convention of the Methodist Protestant Church at its session held in the city of Baltimore, in May, 1884, and of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at its session held in Bentonville, Ark., in May, 1885, for the purpose of considering the question of organic union between the two Churches, met in the parlors of the Maxwell House, in the city of Nashville, Tenn., on the 13th day of May, 1886, at ten o'clock A.M. There were present on the part of the Methodist Protestant Church—the Rev. Dr. G. B. McElroy, of Michigan; the Rev. Dr. J. J. Smith, of New York; the Rev. Dr. F. H. M. Henderson, of Georgia; and J. W. Hering, M.D., of Maryland. Absent—Thomas Sankey, of Pennsylvania. Present on the part of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church—the Rev. S. L. Russell, M.A., of Alabama; the Rev. W. H. Black, M.A., of Missouri; and Andrew B. Martin, LL.D., of Tennessee. Absent—Hon. John Frizzell, of Tennessee, and the Rev. Dr. A. J. McGlumphy, of Illinois. The joint meeting was organized by the election of the Rev. Dr. G. B. McElroy, Chairman, and the Rev. W. H. Black, Secretary. Before proceeding to business prayer was offered by the Rev. W. H. Black.

"The committee state that they have felt the grave responsibility of the position in which they have been placed, and have endeavored most carefully and with much prayer to consider the important subject intrusted to them, and beg leave to submit the following as the result of their deliberations:

"1. We have carefully examined the creeds of the two Churches, and find no difference whatever except that which might grow out of the doctrines of the 'preservation of believers' and 'apostasy,' which we agree are not essential to the Christian system, and may with propriety be left open and unexpressed in the creed of the united Church. We have also examined the formulated expressions of the creeds of the respective Churches as stated in the Confession of Faith of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the Discipline of the Methodist Protestant Church; and while each sets forth the doctrines clearly, that of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is more full and systematic, and we could confidently recommend it to the favorable consideration of a joint convention of the two Churches, if such should be held.

"2. We have at much length discussed the polity of the respective Churches, and are of the unanimous opinion that no serious impediment to an organic union exists in their government, but that a satisfactory adjustment may be accomplished.

"We are pleased to state that the committees have, with the utmost frankness, communicated with each other upon the various points of their work, that a commendable Christian spirit has been evinced by all, and that their conclusions have been reached in a most satisfactory manner.

"We have not felt at liberty to proceed further with the work of organic union, believing that it is wise and for the best interest of both Churches to rest at present with the statement that no doctrinal difficulty stands in the way of union, and that which pertains to polity can be arranged satisfactorily by the two Churches in a joint assembly.

"We believe the union, if consummated, will be for the glory of God and for the advancement of his kingdom, and can see no sufficient reason why two bodies of Christians so alike in doctrine, government, and practice, should long remain as separate organizations.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

Under the Standing Rule, the Board of Publication submitted its annual report, which, after some discussion, was referred to the Committee on Publication, and next Monday night was fixed as the time for hearing further discussion on the subject of Publication.

REPORT NO. 1 OF JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

The Committee on Judiciary submitted the following Report No. 1, which was concurred in, and its recommendations adopted:

The General Assembly at its last session created a "Standing Committee on Judiciary," to be composed of one person, who should "receive and answer all questions of a judicial character arising in the interim between the sessions of the General Assembly." Judge John Frizzell was appointed as such committee, and his report of questions received and answers given has been before us. We think these answers are, in the main, correct and instructive, and therefore valuable to the Church; but we do not think it advisable for the General Assembly to approve or disapprove any of them except such as may be brought before it in regular order, pursuant to Article 43 of the Constitution, and for the purpose of judicial decision to have force in actual cases.

These decisions consist of answers to forty-five direct questions propounded to the committeeman; and the answers involve, in addition, a large number of collateral questions.

This committee has neither the time nor facilities for intelligently passing upon so large a number of important questions, and we submit whether it is practicable for this General Assembly to do so, to say nothing of the policy of the Church courts passing upon abstract questions. We therefore submit whether the committee should not be relieved of further consideration of this report.

In this connection we further submit for your consideration the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Standing Committee on Judiciary, provided for by resolutions, recorded on page 41 of the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1885, be not required to report to the General Assembly, and that his answers be regarded as advisory only.

Respectfully submitted. JOHN M. GAUT, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The following Report of the Committee on Ministerial Relief was read and adopted:

The Committee on Ministerial Relief respectfully report, that we have had this subject under careful consideration, and are much pleased with the exhibit of the Board as read to your reverend body. We feel that the General Assembly has reason to be thankful for the results accomplished by the Board in procuring funds and relieving the wants of the truly needy ones in our Church. The work which the Board has accomplished is indeed a Christian beneficence, since its only aim is to relieve the wants of those men who have loved the Church and labored faithfully for its prosperity and upbuilding. We have examined the applications to the Board for aid as forwarded by the Presbyteries, and we find that the Board has been judicious in the distribution of its funds, all the parties receiving aid appearing altogether worthy thereof. This is a noble enterprise, and cannot be too earnestly commended by this General Assembly to the confidence and favor of our Church.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That the Board, at its discretion, be required to transfer to the "permanent fund" ten per cent. or more (as the circumstances will allow) from their current receipts.

2. That this General Assembly direct the several Presbyteries to co-operate with the Board in the work of relieving the needy and in securing contributions to the "permanent fund."

3. That the General Assembly direct each Presbytery to require the ministers having charge of congregations to take a collection for this purpose at some time in the year, and forward the same to the Board of Ministerial Relief.

4. That the elders of the Church take this work of Christian charity upon their hearts, and press it upon the philanthropy of the entire Church, co-operating with their pastors or supply in securing a liberal offering from every member of the Church.

5. That the women of the Church be called upon to co-operate with us, there being a peculiar fitness in woman for this kind of work; and that the pastors and Sessions of the several congregations suggest to them the propriety of their organizing into relief associations or committees to assist in the work in accordance with such methods as the Board may indicate.

6. That the children and youth of the Church should be educated and developed in this as well as all other forms of beneficence; and to this end we recommend that the first Sunday in November each year be named as MINISTERIAL RELIEF DAY in our Sunday-schools, at which time the object and purpose of this Board shall be explained to the children, and a collection be taken and forwarded to the Treasurer of the Board.

We recommend that you approve and confirm the action of the Board in appointing Brother Laban M. Rice to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the Rev. J. E. Jenkins.

We refer back the able and elaborate report of the Board to the General Assembly for your further disposition of it.

Respectfully submitted. W. W. HENDRIX, Chairman.

DUTIES OF TREASURER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Certain resolutions making inquiries as to the duties of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, offered by the Rev. W. E. Copeland, were read, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

REPORT NO. 1 OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The following Report No. 1 of the Committee on Finance was read and adopted:

Your Committee on Finance report:

1. The Report of the General Assembly's Board of Trustees, referred to us, shows that said Board collected the interest on the Doherty bequest, and paid the same to the Trustees of Cumberland University in accordance with the design of the donor and the order of the General Assembly. While not so stated in the report, it is a fair presumption that said fund is invested as shown by the last report of the Board. (See page 116, Minutes of 1885.)

2. An examination of the correspondence between your Stated Clerk and the members of your Executive Commission, on the one hand, and the Clerk and Treasurer of the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance, on the other hand, shows that the parties mentioned settled the amount due from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church to the treasury of the Alliance for 1884–1885 at $265.80, and the same has been paid in compliance with the order of the last General Assembly. (See page 42, Minutes of 1885.)

J. B. GREEN, Chairman.

REPORT NO. 2 OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The following Report No. 2 of the Committee on Finance was read and adopted:

Your Committee on Finance make the following additional report:

The circular letter of George Junkin, Treasurer of the Executive Commission (American Section) of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, addressed to your Stated Clerk and referred to us, fixes the assessment due from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the year 1885–6 at $531. Your committee submit:

1. Our membership in the Alliance makes the assessment a binding debt and obligation of the Church, and we cannot with honor and self-respect retain our membership without prompt and punctual payment of our proper proportion of all expenses.

2. As appears from the papers coming to our hands, the assessments are claimed to be for the ordinary current expenses of the Alliance.

3. To meet these assessments, the tax on the Presbyteries must be increased from one dollar on each minister to one dollar and fifty cents.

4. That the Treasurer of the General Assembly be ordered to pay the assessment levied for 1885–86, to-wit, $531, and that all the Presbyteries be notified that the General Assembly's tax for 1887 is increased to one dollar and fifty cents on each ordained minister.

5. The correspondence in the hands of your committee tends to show that said assessment of $531 will be an annual tax on the Church, subject to be increased from year to year.

J. B. GREEN, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

The Committee on Overtures made a Report No. 1, pending the consideration of which the special order was taken up, viz., the Report of the Committee on Missions, which was adopted as follows:

Your committee would respectfully submit that the Report of the Board of Missions and other papers have been considered, and the general cause which we represent has received earnest attention at our hands, and we are rejoiced to be able to present some encouraging facts to your venerable body. The tone of your Board of Missions is one of clear and strong resonance in uttering its words of greeting to this General Assembly. The Board has received a decided increase of help from congregations and ministers in its work during the past year, and there has been a manifest growth in intelligent appreciation of the cause and of the methods of missionary effort. The pastors and people of our various Churches are feeling a kindling interest in the claims of Home and Foreign Missions, and, as this interest deepens and widens in its hold, the faith and prayers which express it are accompanied by more and larger contributions to the agencies of mission propagation. As faith and prayer are accompanied by contributions, the practical force of the Church is more and more felt, and the influence of it is to induce many hearts to consider the obligations of the lovers of Jesus to give the gospel to all mankind, so that more persons come forward to present themselves as missionaries of the Cross. Should we wonder, then, that warm-hearted and intelligent men and women are offering themselves to bear the tidings of salvation to the destitute at home and abroad? Indeed, it is but a gracious and natural result that hearts filled with love to Christ should seek to make him known to ignorant and dying multitudes.

It is gratifying to our hearts that your Board has been able to begin a mission to Mexico, and that one valuable man is actually in that vast field of work. It is also very encouraging that another brother and his wife have been appointed to the Japan Mission, so that very shortly we hope to hear that the Presbytery of Osaka has been organized. The Church has been looking to this for a considerable time with great interest, hoping that there may be a better and more rapid development of a native ministry in that Empire, besides fostering all the branches of the work done by both men and women in our Japan Mission. The statement of facts from the brethren in Japan, accompanying the Board's Report, shows a scene of remarkable activity and manifest usefulness. It tells of the organization of Churches, of the application of Japanese youth to become students for the ministry, of paying off Church debts, of admission of members, of the growth of schools, of native contributions to the expenses of the work, even stating that the Church there would maintain its own current expenses.

The foreign work is in pressing need of more laborers, and very strong reasons are presented by the brethren in Japan why the supply should be immediate and constant. The General Assembly would do well to emphasize the need of greater liberality in our people, that the means may be provided even abundantly for sending out men of devotion and ability into the wide-open doors of Japan. Indeed, God's providence seems calling our Church to greater zeal and effort than ever before exhibited, the manifold opportunities of reaching the heathen presenting responsibilities in this direction.

We are much pleased that the Home Mission work is moving forward, and that the success in this department is calculated to stimulate the people to larger beneficence through this channel of your Board's dual labors. From time to time it appears that mission churches are declared self-sustaining, and that other places are received under the Board's fostering care. Why should not both of these important facts be very much enlarged in numbers and greatness of results? They may be so by greater prayer, zeal, and liberality on the part of the Church. The Board stands ready and pledged to employ all means that may be placed in its hands for accomplishing these ends.

Your committee would lay peculiar emphasis upon one point in connection with this great question of contributions for enlargement. While we rejoice that eighty more ministers and two hundred and forty-seven more congregations made offerings through the Board last year than the year preceding, we are firmly assured that a much greater increase would have been secured had Presbyteries properly observed the rule of the General Assembly as regards systematic giving. The rule is that one contribution be annually made by each congregation to Home Missions and one to Foreign Missions, making two contributions each year to the general cause under the Board's direction. Presbyteries in many instances have departed from this rule, and by specific action commanded their congregations to send all their Home Mission funds, or a considerable part of them, to mission work under their own care, but not connected with the General Assembly's Board. This course diverts a large sum from the treasury of the Board, and weakens its hands by leaving it without adequate means of enlargement.

Your committee must most respectfully, but emphatically, challenge the wisdom of such action, and call the attention of the General Assembly to the evils thereof, and we pray the General Assembly to give its high approval to every effort to correct so patent and so great a wrong. Of course, it is with due respect to the Presbyteries that your committee presents this vital matter; nevertheless, we heartily believe that the tendency of said action is to disintegration in the general cause of Missions, and it should be corrected at as early a day as practicable.

Your committee is not prepared to adopt the suggestions made in a paper submitted to us in connection with this subject, that all mission work be required to be done through the General Assembly's Board, for we would not abridge the liberty of the Presbyteries and Synods, neither would we overburden the Board; but we again insist that the lower courts should with fidelity carry out the behest of the General Assembly by allowing and encouraging the congregations to make the two collections a year for the Board's great work.

A paper has been submitted to us recommending that Synods employ missionaries in their territory, and that the General Assembly's Board appoint these missionaries, make them representatives of the interests of all the Boards, etc. Your committee is not able to see the propriety of the measures suggested in said paper, and therefore must decline to recommend said action, wishing to say at the same time that these matters may well be left with the Board and the Synods in their freedom and wisdom.

Your committee cannot see any necessary conflict between Presbyterial Secretaries of the Board and the committees of Presbyteries and Synods in their work, since the work of Secretaries is specifically to encourage the various congregations to do that which the General Assembly has so urgently pressed upon the attention of the people again and again—that is, to make the two contributions annually which the General Assembly enjoins and the Board so pleadingly beseeches. We recommend the continuance of Presbyterial Secretaries so long as the Board finds them useful and without friction with other agencies in the work.

It has been suggested, and your committee submits the question, whether, with full contributions to Home Missions under the Board, an apportionment of funds to Presbyteries might be made in some due respect to amounts given and to the peculiar needs of Presbyteries. Your committee is not sufficiently advised on this subject to offer any definite recommendation upon it.

Your committee is fully prepared to call earnestly upon your reverend body to survey the vast field spreading all around you with a white harvest, whose bending heads plead eloquently for the sickle of the reaper. Iowa comes with piteous pleas for help for its thronging thousands. Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Texas, Arkansas, California, Oregon, all the mighty West, as well as great communities Eastward and Southward, cry out to God and the Church for the ministry of grace and salvation. Indeed, the demands are almost appalling, and the heart would sink in dismay but for the promises and sufficiency of our Almighty Lord of harvest.

It is a great pleasure to your committee in this report to mention and emphasize the work of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of our Church. That Board is certainly enjoying great favor in the providence of God, and it is entitled to the strongest expression of sympathy and warmest co-operation on the part not only of the General Assembly, but of the whole Church. Its success has surely been phenomenal in the history of our denomination. Only organized in 1880, it has already sent out four excellent women as missionaries to Japan, and it has now in hand ——— thousand dollars, so that the work may still extend its proportions with ready means of promotion. The zeal of this Board is exemplary and most stimulative of interest in the Church, and your committee cordially commends it to the attention of the people.

We would suggest, with due respect to this Board and all its auxiliaries, that the line of its operations ought to be well defined and carefully observed in the matter of collecting money and in the object thereof. The great field of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions is the world of women beyond our country, as the very name of the Board shows. Incidentally it can reach men and boys, but specifically and broadly its work is woman seeking to save heathen women from ignorance, degradation, and sin. Its work is strictly in the foreign field, and its movements should be directed so as to preserve its peculiar characteristics. The gathering of money for its noble objects should be, as originally understood, strictly by private means, not by public collections, either in the congregations or at Presbyteries and Synods. By observing carefully this rule of action there is little likelihood of friction between its efforts and those of the Board of Missions.

We would recommend that the Report of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions be published in full in the General Assembly's Minutes from year to year, that there may be wider dissemination of a knowledge of its work and greater security to its history.

We recommend that a sermon be preached at the next meeting of the General Assembly by some one appointed by the present Moderator.

We recommend that the sermon of the Rev. J. M. Hubbert, delivered on this occasion, be requested by the Board of Publication to be published in pamphlet form, and either distributed freely or sold at a low price.

We recommend approval of the Board's action in appropriating one hundred dollars to the education of colored young men preparing for the ministry at Bowling Green, Ky.

We recommend that Synods and Presbyteries devote a part of their time at each meeting to discussion of Mission themes with a prepared programme.

We recommend that one Sabbath in the quarter for Foreign Missions and one in the Home Mission quarter be set apart for a concert of prayer and collections for these great objects.

Your committee would not omit to mention the subject of Church-erection as previously defined, and as placed under direction of the Board of Missions, commending that cause with deep earnestness.

Respectfully submitted. M. B. DE WITT, Chairman.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

The following paper was read and concurred in:

To the General Assembly:

Having been elected by the General Assembly of 1883 General Superintendent of the Sunday-school work of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, but having never formally accepted the position because of the want of provision for support, I now offer this my declination of the office to which the partiality of the highest court of our Church called me, for the following reasons:

1. The Board of Publication, as the committee of the General Assembly upon the subject, reports that it has not found itself so situated as to provide a salary to employ my time.

2. I am satisfied that an arrangement may be made by which this important work may be initiated and prosecuted by a most worthy brother under favorable conditions for the General Assembly, and therefore I would remove every obstacle out of the way of the General Assembly to an election of said brother and the beginning of the work.

Respectfully submitted. M. B. DEWITT.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION.

The Report of the Committee on Publication was again taken up, discussed, and adopted, as follows:

Your Committee on Publication, having attentively considered the subject, submit their report as follows:

That the press is mightier than the sword is no longer a question for intelligent disputation; and the prediction that "many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased," is no longer a prediction, since the prophecy is now a realization. The institution, association, or Church that fails to realize the power of the press, and avail itself thereof, will lag behind in the race, and soon be relegated to the things of the past. And while it is true that the Cumberland Presbyterian Church needs increased facilities in its publication enterprise, still much is being done in this direction. Your publishing interests are slowly but surely advancing year by year. The cash transactions of the Board amounted in the year 1881 to $46,000; in the year 1886 they amounted to $107,894. In the year 1881 the House was practically without credit, but at this time its credit is without question. And taking into account the stringency of the times and other considerations not under the control of the Board, the profits of the Board have not been large, yet the report of the Board shows that while for the year ending April, 1885, the loss was over $3,000, the gain for the year just closed was near $3,000, making a difference in favor of the year just pas of over $6,000.

Cumberland Presbyterian.—The committee do not hesitate to pronounce this a religious periodical of very high order, and one of which the Church may be justly proud. The editorial management has been able and prudent, and the committee herein express unqualified approbation thereof. The paper is of good quality, and the type excellent. While we do not undervalue the good work done by papers published by private enterprise, yet our official organ should command the support of every portion of the Church. The committee would recommend, if practical, that the paper be pasted and cut.

The Comments and Rays of Light are doubtless as good as the means placed in the hands of the Board enable them to produce, and are doing a noble work.

The Gem and Our Lambs, under the editorial management of Mrs. Harris, are every thing that could be demanded by the Church.

All of our periodicals have increased in the number of copies put in circulation, and the lists of subscribers are becoming constantly more permanent. Upon the whole, the condition of the periodicals issued by the Board is of a most hopeful nature.

Theological Quarterly.—There have been placed in our hands overtures from Tennessee, Logan, Pennsylvania, and Bonham Presbyteries, asking your body to arrange for the publication of a Theological Quarterly, the object of which shall be the discussion of theological, technical, and literary topics that cannot well be presented sufficiently full in our weekly paper. The Board of Publication is urged to give this subject the most earnest consideration, and as soon as a sufficient number of bona fide subscribers shall have been obtained, to issue said Quarterly, the Associate Editor of the Cumberland Presbyterian being the Editor-in-Chief, and the Editor-in-Chief of the Cumberland Presbyterian being the Associate Editor of the Quarterly, it being understood at the same time that the work must have a subscription sufficient to meet expenses.

Books.—We learn with pleasure that the Board, in the early future, contemplate issuing several books; and while it is of the highest importance that the History of the Church in course of preparation by the Rev. B. W. McDonnold be given to the Church as soon as it can be done consistent with the nature of the work and the amount of labor to be performed, and that said McDonnold be supported while writing the book; and while the day for the issuing of other good books is most devoutly to be hoped for, still, in the opinion of the committee, the Board should not, in order to accomplish this end, involve itself too much in debt. And it is to be hoped that the Board will guard against involving itself with the same jealous care that has characterized its action in the near past.

There has been referred to this committee a paper from Salem Presbytery, asking that the price of the publications of the Board be reduced. The committee are of opinion that the price of said periodicals is reasonably low, considering the quality of such periodicals, and as cheap or cheaper than such literature is produced by other Churches, and therefore the request of the memorialist cannot be granted.

We have also before us a resolution offered by Elder T. M. Hurst, asking the Board to take such steps as may in its wisdom seem best to procure a fund with which to build a publishing house, and report their progress to the next General Assembly. The committee recommend for the present that this subject be presented through the paper by the Agent of the Board, and that such donations as may be given by bequest and otherwise be set apart for this purpose.

It is recommended that the General Assembly ratify the action of the Board of Publication appointing Jno. D. Wilson to the Agency made vacant by the resignation of Mr. T. M. Hurst. It is but just to state here that the faithfulness of Brother Hurst is greatly appreciated by the Church.

The committee further recommend that the General Assembly ratify the appointment of John H. Reynolds to take the place in said Board made vacant by the death of E. Waterhouse.

In connection with this report your committee submit the following resolution:

WHEREAS, It is deemed advisable that the copyright of the Confession of Faith should be vested in the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church; therefore,

Resolved, That said copyright be transferred to said Board, and the copyright be vested accordingly. J. S. GRIDER, Chairman.

RESOLUTION ON TOBACCO.

The resolution on the use of tobacco was again called up, and discussed, and the further consideration thereof was made the special order for 8 o'clock this evening.

The General Assembly then took recess till 8 o'clock P.M.

TUESDAY, May 25, 8 o'clock P.M.

The General Assembly met, and resumed the consideration of the resolution on the use of tobacco, offered by the Rev. J. M. Hubbert, and which, after discussion, was adopted as follows by the "Aye" and "Nay" vote:

Resolved, That, as the use of tobacco has grown to be a national evil, and is seriously hurtful to ministerial influence and usefulness, this General Assembly counsels the ministers of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church against the use of tobacco in any form whatever; also, that this counsel be earnestly pressed upon the attention of the candidates for the ministry in all our Presbyteries.

REASONS FOR NOT VOTING.

Permission was given that the following paper should be spread upon the Minutes:

To the Moderator and Members of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—We, the undersigned members of this General Assembly, most respectfully submit the following as our reasons for not voting upon the "tobacco resolution" adopted by this General Assembly; and with due deference for brethren who advocated and voted for the resolution, we request these reasons spread upon your Minutes:

1. We are opposed to the Church of Jesus Christ legislating upon this question, since it is one not affecting moral character; and the legislation upon such questions opens a field for unwarranted and unlimited legislation.

2. We regard the discussion of this question as beneath the dignity and province of a body of Christian men meeting as a "delegated" body for the purposes as defined by the Constitution of our Church, which reads as follows: "The General Assembly is the highest court of this Church, and represents in one body all the particular Churches thereof. It bears the title of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and constitutes the bond of union, peace, correspondence, and mutual confidence among all the Churches." (See Confession of Faith, page 91, Section 40.)

3. A proposition which proves too much proves nothing, and the passage of a resolution on "tobacco" weakens the strength of the Church in battling grave sins and wickedness in high places, and assists in defeating our efforts looking to the extermination of the whisky traffic, social evils, and other national sins.

With these reasons we are willing to go to record before the Church and the world.

The General Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

MINUTES.

Minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

REPORT ON ORGANIC UNION.

On motion, the Report on Organic Union was taken from the docket for consideration, the discussion upon which was continued through the forenoon, and pending this discussion the General Assembly took recess until 1:30 o'clock P.M.

WEDNESDAY, May 26, 1:30 o'clock P.M.

The business pending prior to the recess was resumed, and the following paper on the subject of Organic Union was adopted:

WHEREAS, The report of the joint convention of the Committees on Organic Union, appointed by the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and by the General Convention of the Methodist Protestant Church, is before us; and,

WHEREAS, The matters involved are of great consequence to the kingdom of God, and should not be decided without due deliberation; and,

WHEREAS, The Methodist Protestant General Conference does not meet until May, 1888, and hence there is no need of haste; therefore,

Resolved, That the said report be referred for action to the next meeting of this General Assembly, at Covington, O., May, 1887.

RESOLUTION ON ORGANIC UNION.

The Rev. G. T. Stainback offered the following paper, which was adopted:

1. Resolved, That the foregoing action of the General Assembly in the matter of Organic Union with the Methodist Protestant Church, is to be construed as neither indorsing nor condemning the report of the committee, but simply as relegating the whole subject to the General Assembly for action at its next meeting.

2. Resolved, That the expenses of the committee shall be paid by the Treasurer.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education submitted a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

That there is throughout the Church a growing interest on the subject of Education is recognized by all who watch the progress of the kingdom of God. Among the marked evidences of advancement during the past year are the statements contained in the reports of the Board of Education and those of the various institutions of learning in different parts of the Church. Please attend to the following statistical exhibit:

Trinity University has in attendance 250 students, 18 of them candidates for the ministry. It has a productive endowment of $33,000; non-productive endowment, $22,000; and property valued at $39,500. A new building of stone is in process of erection, which, when completed, will make the main building one which has cost at least $45,000. The prospects of the institution are reported better than ever before.

Lincoln University has an attendance of 262. Teachers, 9; value of building, $65,000; endowment in all forms, $100,000; productive endowment, $65,000. A year of pleasant and profitable work is reported.

Ozark College, Greenfield, Mo. Attendance, 185; students for the ministry, 9; teachers, 6. This school is supplied with a good building, and gives promise of enlarged usefulness.

Union Female College, Oxford, Miss. Attendance, 100; teachers, 7; buildings and grounds valued at $25,000. Organized in 1845. Under control of Mississippi Synod.

Cumberland Female College, McMinnville, Tenn. Attendance, 150; teachers, 11; grounds, buildings, apparatus, and library valued at $25,000. Organized in 1850, under the patronage of Middle Tennessee Synod.

Southern Illinois College, Enfield, Ill. Attendance, 225; teachers, 7; grounds, buildings, apparatus, and fixtures valued at $10,000. The school is reported in good working order.

The statistics of Waynesburg College, Cumberland University, Bethel College, and others, foreign and domestic, are not at hand. This is to be regretted, as the Church should know each year what is being done in all her institutions of learning. The total attendance in the schools above reported is 1,172, which, in addition to the number of students probably in attendance in Cumberland University, Waynesburg College, and other institutions not reporting, would make a total of 2,000 students in the Church schools. The total value of the school property is $300,000. The total endowment in all forms is $280,000.

Your action last year in appointing the Rev. Jesse S. Grider as an endowing agent for the Theological School at Lebanon was a wise movement, and has received the acknowledgement of Heaven in the marked degree of success which has been attained. We consider the completion of the endowment of this Theological School a matter of prime necessity, intimately related to the efficiency of the institution, and of commanding influence in determining the future attainments of the Church at large. The subject of biblical interpretation, so vital to the success of the ministry of this age, requires that the rising ministry should be able not only to determine the meaning of the letter of the English Bible (Authorized and Revised), and to expound the sense with facility and confidence, but that they should also be able, if need be, to support their interpretations by authoritative reference to the original languages of the sacred text. It is also requisite that they should be well-grounded in the system of divine truth, in order that they may not be driven about with every wind of doctrine, nor be exposed to the debilitating effects of absurd hobbies, often conceived in weakness but defended with pride and dogmatism. It is further necessary, in order that the real meaning of doctrinal terms may be apprehended, that there should be great familiarity with the history of doctrine and of the Church itself from the beginning until the present time. Just as needful is it, also, that there should be a comprehensive knowledge of the manners and customs of the chosen people, of its type of civilization, and of its geographical environment, in order that the symbols, metaphors, and idioms of Holy Scripture may be interpreted according to their original intent. Not only so, but the ministry, though full of grace and truth, will be limited in their efficiency if they be not properly instructed in good manners for pulpit and society, so that they may have that ready tact which means "all things to all men in order to save some." It is seen, therefore, how comprehensive is the required equipment of a gospel minister, how absolutely necessary is a school of the prophets efficiently administered, and how inefficient such administration must be if it be lacking in financial support. We recommend, therefore, that you renew your heartiest indorsement of this Theological School, that you again commend the faithfulness and self-sacrifice of the professors, and that you once more call upon the people in the name of God, the Church, and posterity, to give liberally of their means for its endowment.

There are two other interests of an educational sort which demand your most earnest sympathy and heartiest approval. These are the Hogan Institute in the Indian Territory, and the school of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, in Bowling Green, Ky.

The present necessities of the work among the Cherokee Indians grew out of the effort to reach the full-blood element of the Nation. The success of the undertaking is largely conditioned upon the management and maintenance of Hogan Institute. This institution is located in a half-breed neighborhood, adjacent to that of the full-bloods. The constitution (Art. III., Sec. 6) provides especially for the education of indigent orphans. The Nation has about 460 orphans. Of these the Orphan Home of the Nation is fitted to accommodate about 150, leaving over 300 unprovided for. The estimate for the expenses of those in the Orphan Home is 37½ cents per diem. Every orphan not an inmate of the Home is entitled to a sum equal to that expended upon the inmates. It is the purpose to bring a number of these into Hogan Institute by consent of the national authorities, and to secure an appropriation equal to the above in their behalf. In order to attain this end it is necessary to give proof of the efficiency of this school, and this requires for its accomplishment the employment of a permanent and competent teacher. If this teacher is supported from outside the Nation by the Church at large, it is believed the patronage will pay an assistant teacher. The results anticipated by the successful management of this school are manifold. (1) A favorable recognition by the national authorities of the Cherokee people. (2) The sympathies of those related to those who are aided will be enlisted. (3) An impression will be made upon the minds of the Cherokees that our Church is laboring for the moral and intellectual profit and elevation of the destitute of the tribe. (4) An accommodation—demanded by the characteristic diffidence of the Cherokees—to such young men as may seek aid in preparation for the ministry, and most of whom will never leave their Nation to secure help, however deeply they may be impressed to preach the gospel. We ask your special attention, therefore, to our recommendation with reference to this school.

Turning now to the school of the colored people at Bowling Green, we are saddened by the thought of the insignificant and ephemeral character of the efforts of our Church in behalf of the Freedmen. It is needful that some plan should be devised by which the benevolence of the Church may be brought to bear in organic form upon the great work of relieving the illiteracy of this race, and of evangelizing it in the name of God and of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Great loss and unimaginable discouragement will be inflicted upon that people if the indebtedness of this school of the colored people, amounting to $3,000, is not relieved and the teachers sustained. We bespeak from you, therefore, a prayerful and active interest in the recommendation on this subject.

We have given due attention to the memorials of Kirksville and McGee Presbyteries, and to the resolutions and address of Brother Simpson referred to us, and have agreed upon recommendations with reference to them.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That the first Sunday in May of each year be set apart as a day of prayer for colleges, seminaries, and all institutions of Christian learning, and that all ministers of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church be directed upon that day to instruct their people upon some phase of the subject of Christian education, to lead the devotions of the members of the Church in this direction, and to give an opportunity for making offerings in this behalf, said offerings to be duly reported to the Board of Education, and to be accounted for by said Board to this General Assembly.

2. That the Board of Education be instructed to appoint an agent to solicit the amount due on the property of the school of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, at Bowling Green, Ky., and that said indebtedness be paid off at as early a day as is possible.

3. That you approve the work of the Rev. Jesse S. Grider as endowing agent of the Theological School at Lebanon, and that he be instructed to continue in this work under the contract agreed upon with the Board of Education.

4. That you commend the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions for its appropriation last year in behalf of Hogan Institute in the Indian Territory, and that you recommend said Board to support a female teacher in said school if the funds are available.

5. That you appoint Prof. A. B. Martin, of Lebanon, Tenn., to deliver an address on the subject of Christian education during the next meeting of this General Assembly at Covington, Ohio, May, 1887.

6. That you recommend all candidates and licentiates to first complete the course of literary instruction provided in our colleges and universities, and then to attend the Theological School at Lebanon, inasmuch as a full educational equipment is absolutely necessary on the part of the ministry of this age.

7. That all institutions of learning under the care of the Presbyteries, Synods, or General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and operated in the name of this Church, be directed to report annually through the Board of Education to this General Assembly, their condition, attendance, resources, and equipment.

Your committee make the following as additional:

We have had referred to us a memorial from the Lebanon Presbytery, asking that your body take some action for reimbursing one of the professors, who has paid from his private means the amount of $114 for necessary repairs on Divinity Hall. Your committee are of the opinion that this amount should be at once paid to this brother, but we are of the opinion that this matter may be legitimately referred to the Board of Trustees of Cumberland University for settlement, and we recommend that you do so refer it. W. H. BLACK, Chairman.

INSTRUCTION TO CORRESPONDING DELEGATES.

The Rev. M. B. DeWitt offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this General Assembly that it is inexpedient for individuals, as corresponding delegates from this General Assembly, in addressing other bodies in correspondence with us, to make further overtures for union of our Church with others without previous direction of this General Assembly.

REPORT NO. 1 OF COMMITTEE ON OVERTURES.

The unfinished business, which was Report No. 1 of the Committee on Overtures, was considered, and adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Overtures have examined the memorials from the Synods of Illinois, Central Illinois, and Sangamon, referred to us, asking the General Assembly to consolidate them into one Synod, to be known by the name of the Synod of Illinois. We have also carefully considered memorials from the Presbyteries of Ewing and Albion, constituent parts of one of the above Synods, asking that you take no action on the memorials of the Synods, for the reason that the consolidation would injuriously

[NOTE.—The following official information in reference to our educational interests in Japan has been furnished, accompanied with a request that it be published: Wilhelma Girls' School, Osaka, 59 pupils; Ragged School, Osaka, 60 pupils; Wakayama School (both sexes), 100 pupils; Shingu School, 7 pupils. Total, 226 pupils. These all are under the care of our Mission in Japan. It is worthy of note, also, that the "Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle" has been introduced into Japan by Mrs. A. M. Drennan, one of our missionaries, and is doing a grand work for the cause of Christian education in that country. There are now about thirteen hundred members of this Circle in Japan."—T. C. B., S. affect the interests of the Church, and especially the interests of Lincoln University and Enfield College.

We offer for your adoption the following recommendations:

1. That the prayer of the Synods be granted upon the stipulations made in the memorial of Central Illinois Synod, and the recommendations of the Joint Committee on Consolidation.

2. That the new Synod be named the "Synod of Illinois," and shall hold its first meeting in the town of Salem, in the State of Illinois, commencing on Thursday before the third Sunday in October, 1886, at 7:30 o'clock P.M., and that the Rev. A. G. McGlumphy be the first Moderator thereof.

3. That the prayer of the Presbyteries of Ewing and Albion be not granted.

Respectfully submitted. G. T. STAINBACK, Chairman.

REPORTS NOS. 2, 3, 4, AND 5 OF COMMITTEE ON OVERTURES.

The Committee on Overtures submitted the following Reports Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 5, which were adopted:

Your committee have duly considered the memorial of the Presbytery of Louisiana, and are unanimously of opinion that said Presbytery should have the relief prayed for. We therefore recommend the following for your adoption:

That the Presbytery of Louisiana be detached from the Synod of Arkansas and attached to the Synod of Texas. G. T. STAINBACK, Chairman.

Your committee have considered the memorial from the Synod of Brazos asking a change of boundary between said Synod and that of the Synod of Trinity. Inasmuch as the latter Synod has refused its assent to the proposed change, we recommend that the prayer of the memorialists be not granted. G. T. STAINBACK, Chairman.

We have had under thoughtful consideration the memorial from the Presbytery of Miami, and inasmuch as compliance with the memorial would require a revision of the Form of Government of the Church, and believing that the General Assembly at present is not too large a body, we recommend that the prayer of the memorialists be not granted.

G. T. STAINBACK, Chairman.

The memorial from the Springfield Presbytery referred to your committee, represents that the Presbytery is so situated in reference to the Synod of Ozark that to attend its meetings at all the members are put to great annoyance and expense; in fact, the expense and trouble of attending the Synod amounting almost practically to non-attendance. They ask to be attached to the Synod of Missouri. We recommend that the prayer of the memorialists be granted. G. T. STAINBACK, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

The Report of the Committee on Sabbath-schools was presented, and then amended and adopted as follows:

Your committee recognize, with gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, that the past year has been one of decided enthusiasm and great progress in our Sabbath-school work. The growing and intelligent interest among our people in the cause of Sabbath-schools, as also the deliverances of numerous General Assemblies of our Church in the past, render it, as we deem, wholly unnecessary for us to do more than reaffirm the worthy utterances already made by our Church as to the importance of the Sabbath-school in the great work of the world's evangelization. There is no longer any question on this point. Henceforth the Sabbath-school is recognized as an established factor and force in the moral and religious education of the world. So universally is this great fact appreciated, that our Churches, as a rule, look to the Sabbath-school for their ingathering and growth.

Your committee deem it necessary, however, to utter a word of gentle caution against the tendency in many of our Sabbath-schools to let go of their pupils at or near the age of maturity. We deem the Sabbath-school more than the nursery of the Church. The Sabbath-school is no more the place for little children exclusively than is the home which belongs alike to all the family. Rather let us accustom ourselves to think of the Sabbath-school as a Bible-school for all—old and young.

As the paramount end of the Sabbath-school is the formation of Christ in the hearts and lives of the pupils, we cannot be too wise or careful in the adaptation of means and methods to this high and holy object. On this part of the subject your committee, after thorough discussion, submit for your consideration the following recommendations, which they are persuaded are also worthy of your approval:

1. We recommend that in order to the highest and best results, the Sabbath-school shall, so far as practicable, be conducted under the supervision of the Church session, as an integral part of the work of the Church, supported from the Church treasury, and not as an independent organization.

2. That the essentials of the doctrines, history, and usages of our Church, especially the Shorter Catechism, be regularly and systematically taught in connection with the Bible Lessons.

3. That you encourage Sabbath-school teachers to secure, as far as practicable, on the part of their pupils, the thorough memorizing of the entire text of the Bible Lessons.

4. That denominational and inter-denominational Sabbath-school conventions be more and more encouraged by all our people.

5. That Normal Classes and Teachers' Meetings be held wherever practicable.

6. That increased care and vigilance be exercised by Superintendents and teachers, lest the lesson-help, however excellent, be substituted for the Bible itself.

7. That you renew your earnest indorsement of all the Sabbath-school publications of our own Church, and commend them to the use of all our schools in preference to other papers and helps.

8. Your committee have had referred to them the paper of the Rev. M. B. DeWitt, declining the office of Sunday-school Superintendent. We recommend that under the circumstances the declination be approved, and that you elect by ballot, during the sittings of the present General Assembly, a Sunday-school Superintendent, who shall devote his whole time to the general Sabbath-school work of the Church; the salary of such Superintendent to be such as he and the Board of Publication shall agree upon, and to be paid out of the funds of said Board, it being also understood that this recommendation is not intended to interfere with State and District Secretaries.

9. Finally, in response to a memorial referred to us from the New Lebanon Presbytery, and to several private communications addressed to us, we recommend that the first Sabbath in June of each year be set apart as Children's Day. On that day let the conversion and Christian training of the children of the Church be presented in sermons and addresses, and a collection be taken for the Board of Publication, to be used in the interest of Sabbath-school work specifically, by employing a General Superintendent of such work, and for such other Sabbath-school interests as the Board may be able to aid.

All of which is respectfully submitted. D. E. BUSHNELL, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DIGEST.

The Committee on Digest, consisting of the Revs. T. C. Blake, G. T. Stainbaek, and Ruling Elder John Frizzell, made a report, which was referred to the Committee on Publication.

FRATERNAL GREETINGS.

The following telegram was received, to which the Moderator and Stated Clerk were directed to make a response:

MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA, May 26, 1886.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Sedalia, Mo.:

The General Assembly in session at Minneapolis sends fraternal greetings. See Numbers vi. 24, 25. D. C. MARQUISS, Moderator.

W. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The General Assembly then took recess till 8 o'clock P.M.

WEDNESDAY, May 26, 8 o'clock P.M.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The Report of the Committee on Temperance was submitted to the General Assembly, and the entire evening was devoted to the subject of Temperance; and at the close of the discussion the report was adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Temperance would most respectfully submit the following:

After a very pleasant and interesting conference with a committee from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this city, appointed for that purpose, and after having duly considered all the facts at hand bearing upon this question, including a memorial from Brazos Synod, we are unanimously of the opinion that we can no longer afford to deal simply in generalities or airy platitudes upon this subject. The issue is upon us, and it will not down. The word of God, the good of society, the success of the Church, the cry of the orphan, the lamentations of the widow, and the salvation of souls, appeal to us to teach by example as well as precept that we should "touch not, taste not, handle not" the unclean thing.

The liquor traffic is the giant evil of this as well as other nations. It is the outspoken enemy of the Church, and a very prolific source of Sabbath desecration, pauperism, and crime. It blights the prospects of youth, withers the fond expectations of mothers and fathers, curses happy homes, and fills our prisons. We are happy to find, however, that there is a growing public sentiment against this evil in every State represented in this General Assembly. In nearly all these States, if not all, vigorous efforts are being made to bring about the entire suppression of the traffic.

Recognizing the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as the source of very great evils, we reaffirm our unflinching devotion to the cause of absolute constitutional prohibition, and we are glad to note that other ecclesiastical bodies are taking high ground on this subject.

At the late meeting of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Association, it was resolved that "We are unalterably and uncompromisingly opposed to the present or any other license law, high or low, firmly believing that no moral evil can, for any considerations whatever, be legalized."

The General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, now in session in Richmond, Va., takes high grounds in favor of total abstinence, in Church members especially, and the suppression of the traffic.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That this General Assembly regards "habitual dram-drinking and tippling" by Church members, as presented in the memorial from Brazos Synod, as a violation of the Church covenant, and should receive the attention of the Church Session as an offense deserving discipline.

2. That the cause of temperance be kept prominently before the Churches and Sunday-schools by an occasional sermon and lesson upon that subject.

3. That we most heartily indorse and encourage the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Temperance Alliance, the Good Templars, and all other temperance organizations, in all laudable efforts for prohibition by statutory and constitutional enactments.

4. We do most earnestly recommend the use of the unfermented juice of the grape for sacramental purposes in all of our Churches.

J. M. ASHFORD, Chairman.

The General Assembly adjourned till 8 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer.

SEVENTH DAY.

THURSDAY, May 27, 8 o'clock A.M.

The General Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

MINUTES.

Minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

REPORT NO. 2 OF COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

The Committee on Judiciary submitted the following Report No. 2, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Judiciary have had referred to them the Minutes of West Tennessee Synod and accompanying documents so far as they relate to the appeal of Henry Craft from the action of that body. The facts, so far as material to the determination of this appeal, are as follows:

A disagreement seems to have grown up between the Rev. H. A. Jones, pastor of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Memphis, Tenn., and Elder W. R. Stewart, Clerk of the Session of that Church. The nature of the controversy is not known to us, and is not deemed material. A meeting of the Session was called for August 3, 1885, to consider these differences, of which meeting the appellant had notice, but which he did not choose to attend. The Minutes of this meeting contain a historical statement of unusual things said and done by one or more members of the Session. A second called meeting of the Session was held on August 11, 1885, at which the appellant was not present, and a third called meeting on September 8, 1885, at which he was present, and presented a protest "as to the substance and form of the Minutes of August 3, 1885, which he asked to be spread upon the Minutes." Motion was made that the protest be received and recorded, and the vote was taken thereon. There were five elders and the Moderator present. Upon taking the vote there were three elders voting in the affirmative, and two elders and the Moderator voting in the negative, whereupon the Moderator declared the motion lost. "The Moderator gave as his reason for voting that Mr. Craft was voluntarily absent from the meeting of August 3, 1885, and had not the right to protest." Elder Craft objected to the Moderator's voting. From this action of the Session refusing to enter his protest on the Minutes, Elder Craft appealed to the Presbytery. The Presbytery affirmed the action of the Session, and upon appeal the Synod affirmed the action of the Presbytery.

It is not claimed that the protest was not temperate and respectful in language, and it is to be regretted that the Church courts have not been spared this protracted controversy by the waiving of a technicality and permitting so harmless a thing as the entering of this protest. The appeal is before your reverend body, and must be disposed of. The questions for determination are:

1. Did the appellant, not being present at the meeting when the action protested against was taken, have the right to enter the protest at a subsequent meeting? We recommend that you decide this question in the negative. The Rules of Discipline, Sec. 93, recognize the right of "a minority" to protest "against the action of the majority." It would seem that a member not present at the meeting, and hence not voting, could not be in any sense considered as one of the minority. The reasons for protesting, it would seem, also, do not apply to him. The right of protest would seem to belong only to those who by their presence and votes had resisted the action of the majority, and to whom, without such protest, such action might by some possibility be in part imputed. We therefore think the right is not possessed by an absent member.

2. Assuming that we are in error as to the question above stated, was a motion affirmatively carried necessary to the entry of the protest on the Minutes? We hold that the assent of the court, by motion or otherwise, is necessary. In this case motion was resorted to without objection, and we recommend that you answer the question in the affirmative. Sec. 94 of the Rules of Discipline makes it imperative on the Church court to record the protest, provided it is couched in temperate language and be respectful to the court; but as the court must determine whether or not the applicant belongs to the class entitled to protest, and whether or not the language is temperate and respectful, we think the clerk has no right to enter it until so ordered by the court.

3. Did the Moderator have the right to vote on the question as to whether the protest should be entered or not? We recommend that this be answered in the affirmative. It is clearly settled by Sec. 13 of the Rules of Order.

4. Finally, we recommend that the decision of the Synod be affirmed.

Respectfully submitted.

MINORITY REPORT.

Ruling Elder John M. Gaut, Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary, made the following Minority Report, in connection with the foregoing, and permission was granted that it be spread upon the Minutes:

Agreeing with the majority of the committee as to the answers to the second and third questions, I disagree with them as to the first, and recommend that you answer it in the affirmative.

The right of protest is only the right to dissent from the action of a majority, is the last feeble resort of those dissatisfied with that action, is harmless in its nature, and the law giving it should be construed liberally. In all doubtful cases the construction should be in its favor rather than against it. Cases may occur in which unexpected action is taken by a body against which the right to protest is more valuable to an absent member than to one who was present and voted against the action. All things considered, I think it would be contrary to the spirit of the law giving the right to confine it to members present. As an affirmative answer to the first question would result in a reversal of the decisions of the inferior courts, I do not concur in the recommendation of the majority, but recommend that those decisions be reversed, and that the Session be instructed to enter the protest on the Minutes. JOHN M. GAUT.

ALTERNATE COMMISSIONER.

The Rev. H. A. Jones, Alternate Commissioner, from Memphis Presbytery, took his seat as a member of the General Assembly, in place of the Rev. A. S. Johnson, who had retired.

ELECTION OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

In accordance with a recommendation contained in the Report of the Committee on Sabbath-schools, the General Assembly proceeded to the election of a General Superintendent of Sunday-schools; and Rev. J. H. Warren was elected to fill said office.

REPORT NO. 3 OF COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Report No. 3 of the Committee on Correspondence was adopted as follows:

The Committee on Correspondence would submit Report No. 3.

We have had before us the communication of G. D. Matthews, Secretary of the "Alliance of Reformed Churches," in regard to the appointment of delegates to that body, which will meet in London, England, on June 26, 1888. Our Church is entitled to thirty-two delegates. We recommend that a committee, consisting of Revs. J. M. Hubbert, J. P. Sprowls, and Elder John Frizzell, be appointed to ascertain what ministers and elders can attend the meeting of the Alliance, and report the same to the next General Assembly.

We recommend that Rev. A. Freeman, of Ohio, be appointed as corresponding delegate to the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions, which will meet in May, 1887.

We are not informed as to where the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church (colored) will meet in 1887. We therefore recommend that the Moderator of this General Assembly be empowered to appoint, at his own convenience, between this and the next meeting of the General Assembly, a delegate to that General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted. J. M. KEETON, Chairman.

REPORT NO. 3 OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Report No. 3 of the Committee on Finance was adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Finance further report:

1. That upon a consideration of the resolution the Rev. W. E. Copeland referred to us inquiring whether the Stated Clerk or the General Assembly's Treasurer is the proper officer to receive and receipt for the General Assembly's contingent fund, your committee recommend that the Stated Clerk receive and receipt for said fund, and turn the same over to the Treasurer, taking proper vouchers therefor, so that the respective reports of said officers may furnish a check upon each other.

2. An examination of the report of the Treasurer, referred to us, shows the same to be correct, and its approval is hereby recommended.

3. On investigation of the report and books of the Stated Clerk before us, we find them correct in every particular, and recommend their approval.

It is thought by the Stated Clerk and the committee that the items of expense contained in the list of disbursements shown in the report of the Stated Clerk, relating to the colored school at Bowling Green, Ky., and amounting to thirty-five dollars, should be regarded as a debt due from said school to the General Assembly's contingent fund, and it will be so regarded until otherwise ordered by the General Assembly.

J. B. GREEN, Chairman.

REPORT NO. 2 OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION.

Report No. 2 of the Committee on Publication was adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Publication have had referred to them a paper concerning the preparation and publication of a digest of the actions of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Your committee recommend that this matter be referred to the General Assembly at its next stated meeting. J. S. GRIDER, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance was adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance report the following:

A scriptural observance of the Sabbath is one of the great co-ordinate forces of Christianity, and of civil and religious liberty as well. The obligations of Sabbath observance originate in the elements constituting man's moral nature: hence Sabbath observance is indispensable to the perpetuity, growth, and fullest development of the religion of our Lord Jesus Christ. Spiritual decline, a low type of morals, and countless forms of vice and immorality succeed a practical disregard of the sanctity of the holy Sabbath; and yet it is lamentably true that Church members and ministers of the gospel, by patronizing Sunday newspapers, traveling upon Sunday trains, and in many other ways, desecrate this holy day, and thus generate an influence prejudicial to the interest of the religion of our Lord Jesus Christ. In addition to this, continental Europe is annually flooding our country with a non-Sabbath-keeping population—a population traditionally antagonistic to our Sabbath institutions. These, with the selfish, avaricious masses of our own population, and especially those interested and engaged in the pernicious liquor traffic, are avowed enemies to our Christian Sabbath. They demand that our Sunday laws be repealed, and that places of amusement and liquor stores be opened upon Sunday as other days.

This combined assault upon the stronghold of religious liberty fills the Church of the living God with the gravest apprehensions, and calls for a united effort on the part of all the lovers of our Lord Jesus Christ to maintain the sanctity of that day that God has said, "Remember to keep it holy." Therefore we recommend:

1. That the ministry and membership of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church earnestly contend for a rigid practical observance of the Sabbath in accordance with the teaching of God's word.

2. That our people in every legitimate way condemn the needless violations of the Sabbath by the great corporations of the land.

W. KNOWLES, Chairman.

The General Assembly then took recess till 1:30 o'clock P.M.

THURSDAY, May 27, 1:30 o'clock P.M.

APPENDIX.

I.—MISSIONS.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

To the General Assembly at Sedalia, Mo., May 20, 1886.

With profound gratitude to the Supreme Head of the Church for grace and guidance, this summary of missionary endeavor during the year ending April 30, 1886, is submitted.

There has been more than usual activity in the various departments of the work. Cumberland Presbyterians never had greater reasons to thank God and take courage. Many new stations in the home field, especially in the West, have been occupied, as will be observed by consulting the list of city missions.

Your Board has been emboldened to thus enlarge the work, according to its purpose announced in the last annual report, and to more fully meet urgent calls for help, from the fact that the great cause of world-evangelization is becoming more prominent in the deliberat ons of ecclesiastical courts, as well as in pulpit ministrations and in missionary and Sunday-school conventions, resulting in wider diffusion of missionary intelligence, and, as an inevitable sequence, in a more general co-operation with the Board in its work on the part of Presbyteries, Churches, and ministers.

The increased and increasing intelligence of the people, whereby alone can their sympathy be enlisted, and which is the only solid ground of permanency and enlargement of all works of philanthropy, has begotten in the mind of your Board, and in the minds of other Christian workers, a larger faith and a quickened determination to push forward in the line of the Master's commission, assured that increased vigor of the mission spirit in the organic life of the Church is the prophecy of better things, the real secret of growth and the warrant for greater aggressiveness.

To what extent the support of the Church has been more general is shown by the accompanying financial exhibit, under the heading "Congregations by Presbyteries."

While it has been needful for your Bo ard to walk by faith, it is gratifying to state that the salary promised to each missionary has been promptly paid. "The barrel of meal wasted not."

It is earnestly hoped that the Church will respond even more liberally in meeting the demands of next year, for a portion of the work having been recently inaugurated the greater expense will come in the future.

An occasion for special gratitude and encouragement is to be found in the proffered and accepted services of two additional missionaries to the foreign field—in fact three, for one will be accompanied by his wife, equally consecrated with himself.

The Rev. A. H. Whatley, a single man, bearing a commission from your Board, is now in papal Mexico, energetically acquiring a knowledge of the Spanish language, and expects to be prepared very soon to prosecute his mission actively. Though one missionary unassisted can do efficient work, it will be important that the mission be re-enforced at an early day by other missionaries, the first of whom should be a married man.

The Rev. G. G. Hudson and wife are busy with preparations for service in Japan, whither they will go in the near future to re-enforce our toiling brothers and sisters in that field so ripe for harvest.

The consecration services are expected to be held during your sittings.

At this point allow the Board to call your attention to certain facts which may be overlooked, and so occasion misapprehension. In the first place, your Board is of the opinion that the call to foreign work should originate in the mind of the subject under the influence of ordinary means of religious enlightenment and impression, and not as a result of personal solicitation or the pressure of religious organizations upon individual minds. In other language, it is believed this call, involving so many considerations of grave importance, should proceed primarily from the Spirit of God in the use of the ordinary means of grace. It is God's work, and he will lay it upon the hearts of those who are competent to undertake it. The Board, therefore, has sought out no individual with a view of pressing upon him the claim of the unevangelized nations, and by this means to influence him to offer himself for the foreign work. Through its President, however, the Board has not failed to place before the minds of our young men, especially those in the Theological School at Lebanon, the importance, the responsibilities, and the imperative needs of Foreign Missions. Nor has the Missionary Record come short of its duty in point of voicing the call of the Head of the Church for men to enter this work.

Moreover, the plaintive Macedonian cry of our missionaries in Japan for re-enforcements has been kept continually ringing in the ears of the Church. As a result, several men have offered themselves for this cause. In each case the Board has eagerly entered into correspondence with the parties in order to determine their qualifications and the sincerity of their call. It would have been glad to commission them every one, if the results of such correspondence had been satisfactory. But in every instance, excepting those of Brothers Whatley and Hudson, the Board was doomed to disappointment. Either the health of the candidate or of his family was found to be inadequate to the demands of such work; or, when it came to final action, the candidate for reasons satisfactory to himself declined to accept a commission.

The Board deems it proper to make this explanation in order that your venerable body and the Church at large may be fully informed as to the policy pursued, and in order that the responsibility for the lack of re-enforcements to the Japan Mission may be properly placed.

Special attention is drawn to the elaborate and highly interesting and instructive annual statement from the Japan Mission. The careful reading and study of the report cannot fail to awaken broader sympathy in the mind of every lover of Missions. The summary of statistics indicates unusual outreaching influences of the mission and development of Christian life among the native members. The Board, and doubtless large numbers in the home Church, long for re-enforcements, and will hail with pleasure the offer of the services of more missionaries as called for by the mission.

For nearly a decade of years two faithful men, with wives as devoted as themselves, have toiled patiently and persistently, waiting and hoping that other workmen would come and join with them and the noble women sent out by the Woman's Board in sowing and reaping in fields where the work already planned by our pioneer missionaries is liable to overtax their powers of endurance.

INDIAN MISSIONS.

Your Board feels that it cannot be too earnest in recommending to your prayerful consideration and support this branch of the work. Were the Church, individually and collectively, alive to the opportunities afforded in this field for usefulness in promoting Christian civilization and training souls for a happy realization of the love of Christ, workers and means would surely be multiplied, and throughout this beautiful country would be established churches and schools, through which these injured and neglected aborigines would be brought up to a correct standard of religious culture. The few missionaries occupying the field have labored faithfully and with self-sacrifice known only to God.

Chickasaw and Choctaw Nations.—Missionaries, 3; native ministers, 8; licentiates, 9; candidates, 5; congregations, 31; additions to membership during the year, 98; total membership, 533; church property, 20 log houses valued at $1,500.

Cherokee Nation.—Missionaries, 3; total ministers, 5; licentiate, 1; congregations, 7; out stations, 5; number of communicants, about 400; church property, Hogan Institute, a Church school well adapted for both Church and school purposes, can accommodate 100 pupils. The constitution for government is such as would meet with general approval. To the Woman's Board they are indebted for aid to the amount of $500. Value of property, $2,000; liabilities, $500; church property near Gibson station, $1,500; church at Choteau, used also for a National school, $700; liabilities, $200; other property, $550; total value of property, $4,750, with liabilities $700.

CITY MISSIONS.

Abilene, Texas.—Rev. J. R. Hodges, missionary; value of property, $1,200; liabilities, $600; membership, 20.

Beverly, Ohio.—Rev. R. J. Beard, missionary; value of property, estimated at $8,000, the title to which being in dispute is sought to be determined by suit now pending. The old congregation has been re-organized, and is, by temporary compromise with adverse claimants, occupying the excellent church-building of which it has for a number of years been dispossessed. Membership, 32.

Birmingham, Ala.—Rev. W. C. Denson, missionary; value of property, $3,500; membership, 40.

Cherryvale, Kansas.—Rev. A. H. Berry, missionary; value of property, $3,000; liabilities, $1,100; membership, 51.

Colorado, Texas.—Correspondence pending with view of securing a missionary; pulpit temporarily supplied; value of property, $3,500; membership, 23.

Connellsville, Pa.—Some property interest; no building; little progress made.

Danville, Ill.—Rev. J. R. Patton, missionary. This work, after being dismissed from the list of missions with the expectation that it could sustain a pastor, became financially embarrassed by prematurely erecting a new church-house; hence, in order to maintain the cause, the Board found it needful to again assume control of the work and to appoint and help support a missionary.. Value of property, $5,000; liabilities, $2,924.43; membership not reported.

Decatur, Ill.—Commencement of active operation deferred at suggestion of the Presbytery.

Emporia, Kansas.—The brethren in the city have not yet commenced the erection of a building. The Board awaits their pleasure before appointing a missionary. Value of property, $845.

Fort Smith, Ark.—Rev. S. H. McElvain, the missionary, has been diligently engaged in securing funds for building purposes. As soon as a sufficient amount has been collected contracts for church-edifice will be made, probably during the current building season.

Garden City, Kansas.—Rev. J. R. Lowrance, missionary; value of property, $4,820; membership, 33.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Rev. W. H. Baugh, missionary; value of property, $10,000; liabilities, $2,648; membership, 91.

Louisville, Ky.—Rev. B. D. Cockrill, missionary. Brick walls of main building constructed and under roof. Regular preaching services will begin when audience-room has been properly fitted for use. In the meantime the missionary will continue to solicit needed funds. Value of property, $10,000; liabilities, $1,000, loaned by Board of Missions.

Meridian, Miss.—Rev. R. A. Cody, missionary. Supplied during the year just closed by the devoted and venerable Rev. R. L. Ross. Value of property, $4,000; membership, 25.

Pueblo, Col.—Rev. W. W. M. Barber, missionary; value of property, $3,500; membership, 20.

San Antonio, Texas.—Rev. W. B. Preston, missionary; value of property, $3,000; membership, 60.

St. Joseph, Mo.—Rev. S. A. Sadler, missionary; value of property, $6,000; membership, 63.

Tyler, Texas.—Rev. R. T. Phillips, missionary. Owns a lot. The missionary recently appointed is under instructions to canvass congregations in the Synod of Texas and collect building funds. Value of property, $810; liabilities, $78

Walla Walla, W. T.—Rev. W. W. Beck, missionary. A number of years ago, under the efficient administration of Rev. H. W. Eagan, a commodious church property was secured and a good working congregation was gathered. Brother Eagan's health having failed, an appeal was made to the Board for assistance in securing and sustaining a missionary. The Board readily responded to the call, and the pulpit was supplied. Value of property, $5,000; resident members, 60; non-resident members, 66; total, 126.

Wellington, Kansas.—Rev. E. C. Ferguson, agent. Two lots purchased, and a portion of building fund secured. Reasonable prospect of having a church-house for our people in this city completed during the ensuing summer and fall.

Oakland, Cal., having been recommended, was adopted as a mission point, and Rev. T. A. Cowan assigned to the work, to commence as soon as he shall reach the field in June proximo. After further consideration the question whether active operations shall first begin at Oakland or at Stockton has been relegated to the Permanent Committee on Missions of Pacific Synod and the missionary. The following extract from the committee's report indicates the proposed action: "We have thought best not to organize at either point till the missionary is on the ground ready to enter upon the work. The chairman of this committee is authorized to co-operate with the missionary to be sent us by the Board, and to locate the mission church wherever Providence may seem to indicate after the missionary arrives."

The congregation at Logansport, Indiana, after many years of faithful toil, first under the ministrations of Rev. A. W. Hawkins, and then of Rev. James Best, has attained the condition of self-support. Many throughout the Church, especially fellow-helpers in Indiana Synod, will rejoice with the Lord's people in Logansport, giving thanks for success in establishing a Cumberland Presbyterian Church in that city. Value of property, $3,800; membership, 126.

The church at Sedalia, Mo., Rev. A. H. Stephens, minister in charge, became self-sustaining last fall. Under the impulse of the spirit of liberality divinely given, its members and friends have erected the elegant edifice in which you have been invited to hold your sessions during this annual convocation. Here you have manifest evidence of the wisdom of your policy in inaugurating and fostering city missions. Value of property, $20,000; membership, 113.

The immense value of this department of work in extending the Church's influence, in increasing its capacity, and necessarily its efficiency in evangelizing not only Americans but idolaters in other lands, cannot escape the attention of every wise pastor and congregation. The wisdom of uniting a portion of the energies of all our people in the upbuilding of congregations in prominent centers of influence has been attested by the valuable results of concentrated effort in our own denomination, and by the experience and successes of older and larger Christian bodies.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.

To meet urgent demands for gospel services in portions of Nebraska and northern Kansas, the Rev. R. F. Powell was appointed missionary therein. His reports give evidence that his labors have been valuably bestowed.

An appropriation of $500 has been made for similar work in California—the funds to be disbursed by the Permanent Committee of Pacific Synod, with the understanding that at least a part thereof shall be used in assisting our weak Churches on the Slope, in supporting an evangelist.

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS OF THE BOARD AND PRESBYTERIAL SECRETARIES.

The valuable services rendered by some of the above-named officers, especially in creating greater interests on the subject of general Missions, Foreign and Home, and inducing co-operation with the plans of the General Assembly, deserve special mention. Could all corresponding members and Presbyterial Secretaries become impressed with the importance of the trust committed to them, and with the magnitude of possible results to be achieved through their agency, and should they dilligently, for love's sake, work up the cause in their respective Synods and Presbyteries by corresponding with neglectful pastors and vacant congregations, the list of contributing congregations would be vastly increased, and not the least of happy results would be more liberal support of pastors and supplies, and fewer vacant Churches, because of broadened views of Christian work which follows participation in general Missions.

CHURCH-ERECTION FUND.

By authority of the last General Assembly, an agent, Geo. E. Patton, well-known to the Church, was appointed to solicit funds for the purpose above named. The Report of the Agent is herewith submitted. This work has only fairly commenced. The small endowment fund now on hand has been so helpful in enabling the Board to extend aid to struggling Missions during the past years, the Board is constrained to renew its appeal for your support in a persistent effort to raise at least $50,000.

SCHOOL FOR COLORED PROBATIONERS.

Your Board took the responsibility of aiding in the support of teachers in the school at Bowling Green, Ky., to the extent of $100, trusting the appropriation will meet with your approval. The Board is seriously impressed that greater encouragement and assistance should be given to our colored brethren, believing that there is nothing which promises more in promoting true evangelism among them than the education of their ministers. The subject is submitted for your careful consideration.

SUGGESTIONS.

1. That you appoint some one whose duty it shall be to deliver the Annual Address on Missions during the sessions of the next General Assembly.
2. That you designate a day for concert of prayer for Foreign Missions and another for Home Missions.
3. That you urge each Synod and Presbytery to devote one of the sessions of each meeting thereof to the discussion of Christian Missions according to a carefully-prepared programme.

ESTIMATES FOR THE COMING YEAR.

Japan Missions	$22 000
Mexico Missions	2 000
Home Missions	16 000
Total	$40 000

These estimates include provision not only for the forces now engaged in the several fields indicated, but also for re-enforcements, which the present condition of the work demands. The manifest opportunities, both in the Home and Foreign field, which the Lord has presented to our Church impose upon us corresponding obligations which cannot be safely ignored. To neglect them is to invite weakness and greatly impair the efficiency of the Church in Christian work. To meet them fully according to our strength, requires the co-operation of all our Churches, and it is one of the most gratifying features of the year's work that there has been so large an increase in the number of congregations entering heartily into it. It is confidently believed that a proper appreciation by our people of the importance of this work will insure a yet more general co-operation of congregations, and easily place at the disposal of the Board the full amount of these estimates besides the Church-erection Fund, for which there is such urgent need.

The Financial Exhibit, prepared by the Corresponding Secretary, together with reports from the Japan Mission, and the Permanent Committee on Missions of Pacific Synod is herewith submitted.

During the year 930 Congregations, 54 Missionary Societies, and 60 Sunday-schools have made their Mission offerings through the Board, and 480 Ministers have enlisted their various charges in support of the work. As compared with last year's report, an encouraging increase is thus shown of 247 Congregations and 80 Ministers co-operating in the work.

CHURCH-ERECTION FUND.

The agent appointed by your Board, agreeable to your instructions, to canvass among the Churches and solicit offerings for the Church-erection Fund, has been in the field a great part of the time since October 15, 1885. Special effort has been made to enlist wealthy members, and aged people without heirs, to bequeath or donate liberal sums for this enterprise, and some very liberal things in this direction have been promised.

The result of the efforts made to date is as follows:

Cash paid to agent	$805 70
Notes given to agent	645 00
Pledges given to agent	500 00
Cash sent to office not through agent's hands	503 08
Total	$2,453 78

Seventy-eight Congregations, one Missionary Society, and three Sunday-schools raised collections according to your instructions, and forwarded to your Board during the year $402.67 for the Church-erection Fund.

This to a large majority of your people is a new enterprise, and little understood by them. It has never been canvassed before the congregations like other enterprises; the plan of its operation and the grand purpose for which it is to be used, as well as the absolute necessity for it in the work of extending the Church, is little understood, and consequently but poorly appreciated by the larger number of your Church-members. Where understood, it is indorsed as one of the most practical and business-like enterprises the Church has ever undertaken, and when presented and explained it never fails to enlist the people for it where there is any hopeful degree of progressive Christian life. This enterprise is of paramount importance in the work of extending the gospel, in building up the Church, and in making it more powerful for good at home and abroad. It is new to the people, and it will require constant, continued, persistent effort to educate them up to it, and such effort will make it a success.

GEO. E. PATTON,
Agent Board of Missions.

ST. LOUIS, MO., April 30, 1886.

REPORT OF THE JAPAN MISSION.

Board of Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, U. S A.

DEAR BRETHREN:—It is not without feelings of profound gratitude to God that we are permitted to close the labors of 1885, and submit a brief synopsis of them to you. Though there have been flood and pestilence, yet the Mission has suffered but little in loss of property, while life and health have been mercifully preserved. There has been progress in members and in the Christian life of the native Church, while the Mission has been increased by the accession of one member sent out by our Woman's Board. There have been national movements which have only served to open wider opportunities for gospel propagation, and impulses springing up from the people and crystallized into action that also bids fair in the near future to still further open up the country to every Christian agency that can be made use of in evangelizing work.

You doubtless join with us in the regret that no other ordained missionaries nor laymen have been sent out to the work during the past year.

A reason which may be suggested for immediate additions to our force lies in the fact that according to the law of average the work is constantly liable to receive a check. As a rule, it should be remembered that the first ten years of a missionary's life in Japan is largely a work of preparation. It has been now almost that period since the first ordained missionary was sent out under the auspices of your Board, and nearly eight since the second came. Here is an interval of eight years during which no others have been sent out. If re-enforcements should come during the present year even, and should any thing occur during the next three years thereafter to remove the two previously sent, ordinary men though they are, yet the work would be impeded thereby. It is the common experience of missionaries upon the ground that the first three years of missionary work, aside from the study of the language and the people, is simply experience gained through thirty-six months of blunders. There is a constant liability of the work to suffer loss until newly arrived missionaries are ready to take the place of those who may be called to even a temporary relaxation from the field. Unless this law of probabilities be duly taken into consideration and acted upon, the expenditure of strength and labor already made may not gather in such extensive results in effective organization as we should wisely plan for as a denomination. The want of such consideration and corresponding action is necessarily a blow at efficiency and continuity of plan and work.

But a further consideration grows out of the immediate needs of the work. There is now practically the removal of almost every hindrance to the proclamation of the gospel. Not only is this true, but there is a more favorable attitude than ever upon the part of leading men of the country in the various walks of life toward Christianity. There is a rage through the country for the study of English, which will go far toward solving the question of Christian schools for the training of an enlightened laity and ministry, and which affords opportunity for widening the influence of the gospel. Our little churches, scattered over two hundred miles of territory, are opening up contiguous fields of labor that should also be worked. The needs of the hour require that work now held in abeyance for several years already because of the paucity of laborers, should be begun. These openings cannot be followed up effectively nor this delayed work undertaken with our present inadequate numbers.

It should not be forgotten that while the Spirit of God and the providence of God are intensely in earnest in setting before the Cumberland Presbyterian Church these open doors, and Christ the Master is thus lovingly placing before us great opportunities and responsibilities for our part in the conversion of this one of "the isles of the sea that wait for his law," there is also another side of the question that brings with it an incentive to prompt action. The devil also is in earnest. He moves right on with all his wiles and counter-movements whether Missions be strong or weak. This generation of Japanese people, whose knowledge of the way of salvation is committed to the present generation of the Christian Church as a sacred stewardship, will not be given over by Satan without a struggle. The years of delayed laborers for this harvest of the Lord are years in which the Prince of Evil makes no delay. Old Japan is largely a thing of the past, and the new Japan must be molded now by Christ and his Church, or else Western materialism, with its evil, shriveling influence, will largely shape the rising empire into a nation that knows not God. "There must be no playing at missions, no trifling with the interests of Japan's thirty-five millions."

The number really needed at the present juncture in order that the work may be relieved from immediate embarrassment can hardly be placed at less than five families—five ordained ministers, full-course graduates in both academical and theological courses of instruction, young men whom the Church at home cannot spare. Is it too much to expect of the faith and charity of our Church, and the devotion of her intelligent young men and women, that the number thus called for will not be forthcoming? It would be far better to re-enforce now, well and substantially, than to string out through years the addition of a meager force.

The efforts of the Woman's Board and their co-laborers throughout the Church, and their success in the past years, give every encouragement as to their work in the future. Their last missionary, Miss Bettie A. Duffield, as the Church has been already advised through the various papers, reached this country in April. Since that time, in accordance with the advice of the Mission, she has been devoting her strength to the acquisition of the language. The Church at Wakayama has succeeded in procuring a permit for her to live in that place three years, associated with Miss Orr in the English day school, which has been projected by it.

As above intimated, Miss Orr has obtained a permit to reside for a period of three years in Wakayama, which includes also freedom to travel through the province at will. Her work is largely similar to that reported last year, namely: the organization of woman's work in the interior. It has been diversified by the needs of the field in its gradual developments, and comprehends now woman's Bible and other meetings, assistance in the English School, village visitation, Sabbath-school and Bible class teachings, and other labors incident to the demands of a young and growing Church in that city.

Miss Leavitt has been devoting herself to "house to house" visitation of women, women's meetings, catechetical teachings in the Nago Machi ragged school, and instruction in foreign handy work, and the explanation of the Gospel of Luke to a number of women in the women's theological class of Osaka. This latter is an institution in which lady missionaries of the English Episcopal, American Presbyterian, Congregational, and Cumberland Presbyterian Missions have united. It is for the benefit of busy wives and others who cannot avail themselves of other facilities for enlarging their Christian usefulness.

Mrs. Drennan has charge of the Girls' School, and in addition to the perplexing duties of that institution, growing out of wholly inadequate accommodations and conveniences, and the limited experience of a young Mission, has also engaged in various other labors. At present she has organized a Christian Endeavor Society from her Bible and English classes of young men, has introduced a branch of the Chautauqua School, which now numbers 1,300 members throughout the empire, has maintained daily afternoon Bible and English classes for young men, and also a Sabbath afternoon Bible class for the same. A class of women composed of the wives of government officials have been coming to her house each morning for instruction in English household duties and the Bible.

The married ladies have been engaged as during previous years—the one looking after the woman's prayer-meeting of the Church, and the other the prayer-meeting of the Church's Mission point at Uchi Hon Machi.

The school work has been gradually growing throughout the year. The school which is being fostered by the Woman's Board is the only one under the control of the Mission. The policy upon which this institution was first organized embraced two features: first, that it should be begun on the foreign Concession as a Mission school; second, it should be transferred to the native Church as soon as they would be able to pay for and maintain it without foreign financial aid. It was in accordance with this policy that property was purchased in the city, and arrangements made for the gradual transfer of the school to the native Church on conditions that were not burdensome, and which it was hoped might be complied with in a reasonably brief time. A president of the institution was elected by a board of native trustees chosen by the Church. He was not, however, allowed to serve in that capacity by the government because of his being at the same time a professor in the Government College in this city. This produced an inconvenient delay in matters, during which time the question of the re-organization of the school upon another basis came up for consideration. After correspondence with the Board of Missions the duty of its re-organization upon such other basis as the mission deemed best, was relegated to us. This left for the Mission, with its present light, one of three bases upon which to conduct it, either its continuance upon its original plan of gradual transferance, or to make it permanently a Mission school, or to put it into the hands of the native brethren to be developed by them with the aid of the lady missionaries into such an institution as the native Church, without any fostering foreign money assistance, might be able to make of it.

The action of the Mission covered the following points: First, the establishment of the school permanently on the foreign Concession as a Mission school; Second, the non-support of scholars from the Mission funds; Third, the sale of the property purchased last year and the appropriation of the proceeds to the needs of the institution.

In order to carry out the work on this basis it will be necessary to build anew and reconstruct old buildings. The question is how to house twenty or more boarding pupils, two or three foreign lady teachers, furnish recitation, dining, kindergarten, working and other rooms. This cannot be done with the means now at command. A Mission school is one that is furnished and controlled entirely by the Mission. It can be self-supporting only in the sense of having a patronage large enough to furnish an income from tuition sufficient to pay its running expenses. Such a patronage will come only as the school is made worthy of it in every respect. This puts upon the Board, the Mission, and the Church at home, a very great responsibility. Only the utmost harmony and hearty co-operation of these three different factors can, with the divine blessing, make it most largely successful.

During the year there has been an enrollment of 31 day scholars, and an average attendance of 25. Boarding pupils, 19. Assisted from funds provided by special arrangement with parties in America or missionaries on the ground, 11; day pupils, 25; boarding pupils, 19; total, 44. Higher pupils, 20; primary, 24; total, 44.

The income from tuition fees for the year has been $430.49. The expenditures for all purposes, $564.05. This does not include the income from boarding, as that, with the expenditures for the same, strike a balance.

During the year the native Church has been moving in the matter of providing a Christian education for themselves and for their respective communities. These have been successful in point of attendance and all other respects in proportion to their maintenance of a distinctively and thoroughly Christian attitude.

School work was undertaken by the Shingu Church beginning from the month of May, at which time one of the families went to that place and spent several months in rendering such assistance as they could. A Christian young man, a graduate from the American Board Training School of Kioto, was called to the charge of the boys' school. It was established exclusively for English study, with the expectation that its teachers would be supplied by the Church, though it is not recognized as distinctively a Church school. The average attendance has been 65. A primary English school for girls was also started at the same time under the exclusive control of the Church. In this work the missionary was assisted by the Japanese girl who is being aided by the Lebanon Society. After the return of the latter, a girl who graduated from the Congregational Girls' School of Osaka was called to the charge of it.

The Church at Tanabe have secured a room and raised the means necessary to begin a kindergarten, but owing to the want of a native Christian woman who understands such work, have not yet succeeded in starting their school.

The Wakayama Church commenced their school work in the month of November. It began as a co-educational institution, and is exclusively under the control and management of the native Christians. It is the endeavor of the native brethren, teachers, and resident missionaries to maintain it only on a thoroughly Christian basis. This honesty of purpose is known by the community in which it is located, and commands respect.

There are three native teachers engaged in this work, which relieves the lady missionaries of responsibility and much routine work, and gives them needed time for other labors. It closed its first month's work in the last month of the year, with an attendance of 40 and an encouraging outlook for the coming year.

In Osaka a "ragged" school was originated by some of the missionaries several years ago, in a district of the city full of pauperism and degradation. A night school is maintained for the benefit of any who may come. Thursday afternoons a meeting is held for religious instruction and catechetical purposes, and a Sunday-school every Sunday afternoon. The Bible is the principal book read at the night school. The attendance for the year averaged 60.

Besides several young men in school preparatory to prosecuting a course of theological study, there are three who are devoting themselves as well as they can to direct theological study with a view to increase their usefulness as evangelists or lay-workers, or possible pastors, should God so open the way.

The more immediate evangelistic work has been richly blessed by the great Head of the Church. There are now six centers in which are little Church organizations, and all of them important ones.

Osaka is the chief commercial center of Japan, Wakayama the largest city of its entire province and of its contiguous southern provinces, while Tanabe and Shingu are each respectively the sources of supply and trade for several valleys of populous villages. In the first-named city are five different Protestant bodies laboring, besides the Roman and Greek Catholic Churches. In Wakayama the American Episcopal and Cumberland Presbyterian Missionaries, and Greek Catholic and Roman Catholic Church are at work, while in the rest of that and the adjoining state your missionaries alone are engaged.

The last year records the death of five members, all of whom were faithful disciples. Four members have been expelled. The necessity for such severe discipline will doubtless be a valuable lesson for the Church in leading them to the exercise of greater care in admissions to full membership. The older Churches, and perhaps all, see more and more the importance of this caution.

The Church in Osaka have paid off the final indebtedness upon their church-building, and consequently feel much encouraged, and enter upon the new year more hopeful than ever.

As nearly as can be ascertained from the imperfect returns for the year the following summary of statistics may indicate the progress of the Church for the last twelve months:

Osaka.—Baptized, men 13, women 10, children 2, total, 24; expulsions, 3; deaths, 4; members in America, 2; last year's membership, after deducting for removals, etc., 62; present membership, 86; scholars in mission-school, 44; ragged-school, 60; Sabbath-school scholars, 95; average attendance at various woman's meetings, 35. Offerings—For Missions, including Mission hall rents, $63.80; church debt and contingent expenses, $376.55.

Wakayama.—Baptized, men 17, women 3, total, 20; received by letter, 1; last year's membership, 10; present membership, 31, scholars in native Church English day-school, males 36, females 4, total, 40; Sabbath-school scholars, 40; average attendance at woman's meetings, 12. Offerings—For Missions, $4.24; house rent and contingent, $23.64.

Mittani.—Baptized, men 3, women 1, total, 4; members in America, 3; last year's membership, 19; present membership, 23; Sabbath-school scholars, 14; average attendance at woman's meetings, 3. Offerings—For various purposes, $24.00.

Hikati.—Baptized, men 1, women 1, children 1, total, 3; last year's membership, 12; present membership, 15. Offerings—For Missions, $5.50; contingent expenses, $12.00.

Tanabe.—Baptized, men 10, women 6, children 2, total, 18; last year's membership, 4; present membership, 22; Sabbath-school scholars, 30; average attendance at woman's meetings, 9. Offerings, $33.64.

Shingu.—Baptized, men 17, women 3, total, 20; received by letter, 3; members in America, 1; last year's membership, 8; present membership, 31; girls in native Church school, 7; Sabbath-school scholars, 15; average attendance at woman's meetings, 8. Offerings—For Missions, $18.00; contingent expenses, $12.00.

Summary.—Baptized during the year, 89; number of members received, 93; expulsions, 4; deaths, 5; absent in America, 6; present membership, 208; number scholars in day-schools, 162; in Sabbath-schools, 189; average attendance at woman's meetings, 70. Offerings—Missions, $93.12; contingent expenses and debts, $471.79; for all purposes, $564.91.

The growth of the Churches in membership since the baptism of the first two young men September 26, 1880, is as follows: 1880, 2; 1881, 8; 1882, 27; 1883, 47; 1884, 124; 1885, 208.

The Church will maintain their own running expenses and that of their contiguous mission points. They have at present no pastors. The reason for this grows not out of any unwillingness to employ such, but because there are none who are yet suitably qualified. There is a very healthy sentiment in the Churches which lead them to place the necessary qualifications for the pastorate somewhat high. In the meanwhile the elders and leading members shoulder the responsibilities of this state of th ngs, which we can but hope may not be of long continuance. The Osaka and Shingu Churches possess each respectively church-houses adequate for all ordinary purposes. The other congregations have rented ordinary Japanese houses for church purposes.

Our needs for the coming year are the same in kind but greater in degree than those of previous years. When we mention the importance of giving us a large interest in the prayers of yourselves, and calling upon the Church to do the same, it is not from the feeling that this is simply the proper thing for missionaries to request. But continued experience upon our part as a mission, without precedents of its own, inexperienced, and in a land such as this, makes us feel fully that the united earnest intercession of Christians is a vital necessity.

The need of re-enforcements has already been mentioned. "What shall the man do who cometh after the king." Christ the King, who is back of the movements, plots, and c unterplots of rulers, and who marshals all events by his providence for the interests of his kingdom, is himself, by Japan's present condition, speaking to the Church to make greater onward movements, to encompass the great commission which he left as his disciples' most sacred trust.

The more immediate practical needs will be appropriation for re-enforcements, and the provision of suitable quarters for them. An appropriation for the erection and furnishing of an adequate building for the girls' school, including the missionary's rooms, dormitories for scholars, recitation and other apartments, and also the salaries of the needed Japanese teachers in the same. Provisions must be made, also, for the general educational, evangelistic, and publication work. .

For the benefit of a few theological students there is needed a set of wall maps of Old Testament Bible lands, of Palestine in Christ's time, and showing the travels and the journeys of Paul. These should be simply outline maps. There will be needed, also, several sets of Dr. Beard s Systematic Theology and of Dr. Blake's Theology Condensed, with sets of brief and readily understood commentaries and Bible dictionaries of modern date.

As the school year begins in the month of September the interests of the work will be subserved if all the remittances are made so that they can be drawn upon from that date.

With earnest gratitude to God for his blessings upon our labors through the past year, for the increasing "spirit of missions" breathed by his own good Spirit upon our Church at home, with its consequent enlarged sympathy with and interest in the work, we turn our faces from the past to enter upon the duties and meet the problems of the last year of the first decade of our existence as a Mission.

REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS OF PACIFIC SYNOD.

To the Board of Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, Mo.:

DEAR BRETHREN:—We herewith submit our report for the year ending May 1, 1886. At the last meeting of the Synod, D. E. Bushnell, D.D., resigned his position as a member and Chairman of the Committee, and Rev. H. C. Culton was chosen to fill the vacancy. We are glad to report that our lay-evangelist, Dixon C. Williams, is now among us, and that his labors are being owned and blessed of God. We had hoped that Brother Williams would be able to visit all our Churches, but owing to a number of engagements which he had made before our plans were perfected, we fear he will not be able to do so this spring. We hope, however, that those congregations which he cannot visit now, will receive his attention in the early autumn. Thus far his remuneration has come wholly from the congregations receiving his services. By your kindness we are now prepared to aid our weak Churches in defraying his expenses, so soon as he can visit them. In the name of the whole Church in the bounds of the Pacific Synod, we extend to you most hearty thanks for the appropriation recently made by you for mission work in California. The first of the five one-hundred-dollar installments promised has already reached us, and is in the hands of our Treasurer. This will greatly encourage our toiling, struggling brethren, and assure them that a common bond of sympathy and fraternal affection bind together Cumberland Presbyterians on both sides of the Rocky Mountains.

We are glad to report the Visalia Church in a hopeful condition. The appropriation for that work was discontinued in October. We find it necessary to increase the appropriation in behalf of the San Jose Church. Friends at Stockton appealed to Synod last fall asking that steps be taken to organize a Church in that city. We were instructed to answer this call, and if practicable, organize them into a congregation, and aid them in securing a pastor or supply. We complied with the order of Synod, and found a number of Cumberland Presbyterians in Stockton, some of them anxious to have a Church planted there. Knowing that in all probability we could not secure funds to carry on the work at Oakland and at Stockton, we have been at a loss to decide between these two points. We have thought best not to organize at either point till the missionary is on the ground, ready to enter upon the work. The Chairman of this Committee is authorized to co-operate with the missionary to be sent us by the Board, and to locate a Mission Church wherever Providence may seem to indicate after the missionary arrives.

We are greatly encouraged by your promise to send us Rev. T. A. Cowan for this work. We are confident that you will do all in your power to aid us in pushing the work of the Master on the coast.

The Treasurer's statement accompanies this report.

Praying the blessing of God upon you in your labors, we are yours in the Lord,

H. C. CULTON,
Chairman Permanent Committee Pacific Synod.

WOMAN'S BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Six years ago, in accordance with a call from the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Evansville Congregation, seventy women, representing all parts of the Church, met in that city for the purpose of forming a Woman's Board of Foreign Missions. It was a happy event, "a going forward," to the women of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Five years ago many now present gathered in this church to celebrate our first anniversary. How well you remember that meeting!

The Holy Spirit was manifestly present, and the cause of Foreign Missions in our denomination received a fresh impulse. We stand again in this place to present our Sixth Annual Report. As we review the past we are led to exclaim, "The Lord has done great things for us!" He has so richly blessed us, and I trust that, with grateful hearts, we will give glory to him for all the paths in which he has led us, and for the good work which, through his grace, we have accomplished. In reviewing the work of the past our hearts are made to rejoice, because of God's goodness and loving kindness, and well may we "sing unto the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things for us," in giving us six years of unbroken prosperity as a Board, in sparing the lives of our missionaries, and in giving them success in winning souls to Christ. As auxiliaries, we have received from our dear Father's hand an emphatic lesson upon the necessity of doing our work promptly. Many, many of our societies have been invaded by death. O that this uncertainty of life might be so impressed upon each woman in this audience this morning that not one would say, when called to labor for the salvation of souls, "I have not time," "pray have me excused." We are not weary, however, neither does our courage fail, though the shadows have settled over us, for the "Lord God is our strength," and in doing his will, as we obey his command, will we joy and rejoice in the God of our salvation.

The work, though hindered in some cases, has gone steadily forward, and from the first of the year there has been an undercurrent of enthusiasm moving every thing along. We have noted this unusual activity as daily mails bring us packages of letters and cards, which must receive prompt attention in order to make room for others we knew to-morrow would surely bring us. Questions which could scarcely be numbered have come to us, all of which we gladly answer, so far as we are able to do so, for we would not have you hesitate to ask for any information it is possible for us to give. So please write freely to us upon all matters pertaining to our work.

SYNODICAL AND PRESBYTERIAL WORK.

We feel that thanks are due many of our Synodical and Presbyterial officers, who have so warmly received and faithfully carried forward every plan presented by the Board. As mentioned in our last annual review, we realize that there must be system in order to efficiency, and that nothing is well done that is not done in an orderly manner. Hence, we have been looking for some better plan by which our work, by Presbyteries, may become more systematic, and following the plan of a sister Board, recommended Presbyterial organization, and after much thought and earnest prayer, the committee to whom this matter was referred during our meeting in Oxford, Miss., reported that they favored the organization of Presbyterial societies, and considered it an important measure to be adopted. It was also recommended that the Board issue a leaflet, explaining the work of said societies, with a Constitution for governing the same. This was done, a leaflet forwarded to each Presbyterial Secretary, many of them going to work immediately to effect an organization. The result has been that within six months we have received the good news that quite a number of Presbyterial societies have been organized, and that all are well pleased with the outlook, considering it superior to any plan already tried for thorough work. We trust that each Presbytery will, as soon as practicable, organize a Presbyterial society, that we may be more systematic in this work, for, says a secretary of a sister Board, Presbyterial organizations are our strongholds in the hands of officers thoroughly furnished to all good works. Without taking time to dwell upon the advantages of such an organization, and for a more thorough understanding of this method of work, we refer you to the leaflet published on this subject, and ask that you give it your prayerful consideration.

Meetings held during the sittings of Synods and Presbyteries have resulted in great good to the cause, and we advise that they be continued, especially in Presbyteries, even if organization cannot be effected immediately. These public meetings, during Synods and Presbyteries, do much toward interesting the pastors of churches (which is so essential to the local society) in woman's work for heathen women, and then the interchange of plans and methods for carrying forward the cause will be of great benefit, as women will return to their homes with new and enlarged ideas necessary to the progress of the work. Let us ask, and our Father will give us needed wisdom, that we may do that which will help most to advance his kingdom on earth.

AUXILIARIES AND BANDS.

One hundred societies and bands have been organized during the year. Total number of auxiliaries and bands enrolled, five hundred and eighty-nine. Surely we have a large membership, but we must remember that the majority of the women in the churches represented by these societies hold themselves aloof from the work. While revivals are in progress in foreign lands, we have among us Christians who are saying, "We do not believe in foreign missions;" "enough to do at home." An objection so old it is threadbare. God never made a human heart so small that it could not be expanded so as to make room for all his work. Does not this prejudice come of ignorance? We must give them facts, and circulate missionary literature far and wide, never resting satisfied until all are in sympathy with the cause we so much love.

As to the monthly meetings, we would suggest that the programme be carefully arranged, varied as much as possible, using the topics given by the Board, and, in addition, any thing that will add to the interest of the service. "Missionary teas" have been added to the regular order of exercises in some auxiliaries, and have proved wonderfully successful. Many write of difficulties in making meetings interesting, but the material for use in missionary meetings is so varied and abundant, that an uninteresting meeting is hardly possible, if proper attention is given to the exercises. We would suggest to auxiliaries that whatever they find helpful to themselves may be helpful to others, and when they have tried a plan which has increased or added interest to their meetings, that they give others the benefit of it through the columns of the Record. Attendance upon synodical and presbyterial meetings, by delegates from auxiliaries, should receive special attention, although it costs time and money to do this; still such meetings are of great benefit to societies. I fear that a number of our societies are sleeping, but we hope not so soundly but that they may be aroused again to their duty by some faithful woman having such work in charge. The treasurers of auxiliaries will remember, where they have a presbyterial organization, to forward all money to the Treasurer of the Presbyterial Society, who will receipt them, and she, in turn, forward at least once a quarter to the Treasurer of the Board. Would that all were more thoroughly consecrated to the work of Missions in their own society and congregation, trying to push forward the cause, and enlist others. Then would our ears hear of a great missionary revival in our denomination, and our eyes see many coming to the front, asking, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" Father, help women connected with our auxiliaries to come up to their whole duty, going forward conquering and to conquer in the name of our blessed Lord.

FINANCES.

The Treasurer's report is very encouraging; still the receipts for the year are not what they would have been had members of auxiliaries come up to their whole duty. Many auxiliaries have not contributed any thing during the year, while very many record stern self-denial and earnest struggles to redeem pledges through all the financial depression of this trying year. The story of hard times, severe storms, and bad roads are to you a thrice-told tale. However, they remain as facts. Yet, with all their depressing effects—the difficulty of raising funds, and in many places the impossibility of holding meetings—we feel that we are able to present to you a report showing, in some particulars, a year of progress in our finances.

Will you notice the following suggestions: Please forward money by post-office order, registered letter, or bank draft, and fractions of a dollar in one or two-cent stamps. Please be very particular in regard to the latter request. Specify for what object money is intended; also mention name of auxiliary—not simply post-office—Synod and Presbytery to which you belong. If the many societies giving nothing this year would only give a few dollars in the future, our receipts would be considerably increased, but during our financial depression I fear too many indulge in liberal expenditures in things agreeable to the flesh, while economy is exercised in gifts to the Lord. Our dues are more than paid to the world, and withheld from Him to whom as Christians we owe allegiance. Let us bring rich gifts to the Lord's treasury, that many who now sit in darkness may be brought into the light and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

May we hope that the experiences of the past year have strengthened our faith, and may we say, "In Thee, O Lord, do we put our trust for the future." Let us give of our substance as the Lord has prospered us, in that way helping the grand army of missionary workers as they move forward to plant the cross of Christ in every land, and tell the story of redeeming love to every nation of the earth.

OUR MISSIONARIES

Are earnestly working for the salvation of souls, and God has graciously blessed them in giving health and strength for their labors, and in crowning their work with success; and although the sad news that mother is dead has been carried across the waters to dear Mrs. Hail, still she is trusting all to Him, who afflicts only in love—and going forward in her work. Our work in Japan has its needs, and our missionaries appeal to Cumberland Presbyterian women if these needs can be met. Will we do all we can to advance the cause of our Redeemer in that country? God help us. Four young ladies have already offered themselves to this Board for work in the Sunrise Kingdom, and are even now making preparation for their life-work. These increased responsibilities call for increased energy and prayer upon the part of every auxiliary society. Let us this day dedicate anew our interest and our prayer to this service, to which women are specially called—the enlightenment of our sisters in heathen lands. Pray the Lord of the harvest to send out more laborers into the harvest. More active work and a truer consecration are called for to merit the expectant answer to this prayer.

OUR RECORD,

A portion of which the Assembly's Board has so kindly given us, has held its accustomed way, fully sustaining its established position. We could not estimate the value it is to our work, and surely it could not be dispensed with. We should double its circulation—yes, more than that with our membership.

This question is often asked, "How shall we reach the uninterested?" Is there any better plan than to persuade them to subscribe to this monthly paper, and read it? Who can become familiar with the needs of the work as given by those best acquainted with them, and the condition of woman in heathen lands, as pictured by our missionaries, and still remain indifferent? What will you do to widen the influence of the Record? Will we take it, and read it, and see that others do likewise? I am sure we voice the mind of every missionary worker when we say that we most heartily appreciate the kindness shown us by the Assembly's Board, and the editor of the Record for giving so large a portion of this valuable paper for woman's work.

WORK OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE.

There is a continually increasing interest among our young people, and we gratefully note their eagerness to do what they can to advance the cause, and for those who in heathen darkness long for the advantages which are so richly bestowed upon the youth of our own favored land.

Scores of letters testify that in our young ladies' societies and childrens' bands this has been a year of wonderful growth and development. We would have our young people to come to the front. We have heard of their activity and enthusiasm in other Boards, and we would not have ours fall behind, for we must rely greatly upon their strength and energy in awakening the Church to the reality of the heathen and their necessity. Our Sabbath-schools, too; we would have them become thoroughly organized for missionary work. The youth of our Church would be a power for good were they enlisted in this cause. Much depends upon our efforts, my dear sisters, and will we willingly help the children and youth of our Church that they may not be found wanting or have it to say in after years because of ignorance they do not believe in missions. Let it be our earnest endeavor to so educate and guide these youthful minds that in the near future our Church shall be rich in her "stalwart sons and noble daughters," each one ready to glean in the world's great harvest-field.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Oxford Convention recommended that we make an appropriation for work among the Indians, and five hundred dollars was brought forward through the Assembly's Board to Rev. N. J. Crawford, of Choteau, Indian Territory, to be used where most needed to advance the cause. This is a department of our work where both money and laborers are greatly needed, and we trust that all will give it due consideration, for while we remember those in foreign lands we would not forget those on our own continent who need help. The way has not seemed to open for us to enter upon work in Mexico, but we hope to be able to co-operate with the Assembly's Board whenever it may seem best to do so, as so important a field should have our assistance.

During the year the Board has been incorporated as ordered during our last annual meeting.

Our book of exercises, for the use of children's bands, is now ready for distribution, and has been arranged by Mrs. A. H. Stephens, of Sedalia, Mo. We hope that those interested in work among children will find this helpful to them in arranging for meetings and entertainments. Mrs. Stephens has the thanks of the Board for the kindness and interest she has shown in this matter, for she is untiring in her efforts to assist the children of the Church in this work.

We have added a number of new leaflets to our list within the past two months, and in addition to our own we have the choice publications of other Boards, ready to supply all orders. Our own leaflets, together with a large number of Records, have been distributed gratuitously, and we have reason to believe that lasting good has been accomplished by so doing. One thousand five hundred copies of the Fifth Annual Report have been scattered throughout the Church, and have been read by many who may never be privileged to attend one of our annual meetings. We would not fail to notice the work of our solicitors who are so faithfully and earnestly carrying forward the work amid so many discouragements. Our solicitors are the women who look after our interests in congregations where it does not seem practicable to organize a society by collecting funds, distributing missionary literature and conversing with the women in their homes upon this all-important subject. Surely these women are doing a glorious work for the Master.

We trust that the Sabbath evening hour of prayer is a time dear to the hearts of all missionary workers longing for the salvation of souls. Let us pray for each other.

CLOSING WORDS.

How sure are God's promises to those who trust him, and seek to do his will. As we come to summing up the past, and planning for the future, may the Holy Spirit teach and guide. My dear friends, why may we not ask for and expect a large blessing upon all our work at home, and upon those who represent us abroad? Why may not the work be greatly enlarged during the coming year? While we wish that greater things had been accomplished, we rejoice that Cumberland Presbyterian women can take their place among those of other denominations in speeding forward the cause, and may we each faithfully perform the part allotted to us. We have come with our sheaves, not heavily laden, to be sure, yet we think somewhat heavier than those of last year, and we trust that fewer leaves may be found among the golden grain Again we would emphasize the need of personal visitation, the immediate training of the children and young people, and the increased circulation of missionary literature—especially our own Missionary Record, as essential factors in our work.

The home part of work needs our attention and earnest prayer, and may we ever remember that no durable work was ever accomplished without push and the combined motive power of mind and money.

And, now, as we lay aside the records of another year, and begin the work of a new, may we go forward, with open hands and hearts, filled with love for this glorious cause, and for those less fortunate than ourselves, and may we have some part in helping to scatter the bread of life among the hungry, starving women, who are waiting for Christian sisters to lead them to the Lamb of God, slain that they might have eternal life. It is a sacred privilege to live in this missionary age, when the doors of every heathen nation are thrown wide open, and we can enter and carry the gospel light into darkened homes, where our sisters sit longing for the light and the comfort found in hope of a better life beyond. May love and faith be so increased in our hearts during this gathering that we may go to our homes ready to take up the work of another year with a consecration which has never been known in previous years, then we will be strong enough to walk where our dear Lord may lead, and willing to work in any field where he in his wisdom may see fit to call us. To those who have given their most precious treasures to this holy cause, and may soon send them from the shelter of home, we repeat the unfailing promise of our Father, "The Lord is my rock and my fortress." He will protect them and guide them in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on him.

And now may we, in an humble, child-like spirit, open our hearts to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit, which our dear Father is even now pouring upon us! And may we remember that the same blessed Spirit is ever hovering over the waste places of our Savior's inheritance, waiting for the Church to send the word which shall make it possible for him to descend in showers of blessing.

In closing, we would say that the voice of the Lord to this Board is: Go forward, through superstition and ignorance abroad. Go forward, through formality, coldness, and selfishness in the home land, until "The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them, and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose." MRS. J. C. MCCLURKIN, Cor. Sec.

FOREIGN SECRETARY'S REPORT.

To-day we stand again to represent the different branches of the mission work in this Church, where six years ago the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions was instituted. God has led us and richly blessed us, and we would gratefully acknowledge his kindness in the progress which has been made and the good work accomplished through these years.

As I begin our review of the year, it reminds me of two proud, majestic, well-equipped steamers, steaming and puffing into the same port, each sailing under a different flag, but the freight of human souls, though under a different country's ensign, have hearts throbbing with loving welcome one for the other, minds united in fervent enthusiasm for the same cause—Missions—passengers on both vessels eager to hear the returns of the year's work. We will name our vessels America and Japan, to represent the home workers and our workers in the "Orient Land." In the name of the Board I say, All hail! with love and cheer to you who represent America, and the same to the letters that represent Japan. You have viewed with your Corresponding Secretary all the departments of the home work, rejoicing with thanksgivings over each new feature. Come with me a while to Japan, and let us hear her welcome greetings, note the history of her year's work, examine her "curios" from the gods of her temples, through her industries, arts, manufacture, dress, all through her range of skill to the pencil-drawing of the school-room which ornament our tables and cabinet, also bear prominent places in our homes. Listen to the voice of her greetings:

"OSAKA, JAPAN, March 29, 1886.

To the Woman's Board of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

"DEAR SISTERS:—Your annual meeting at Evansville will undoubtedly be an unusually interesting one. It brings you to a point in your work in which you can look back over the time which intervenes between your first meeting and the present one. Such a review will be a source of gratitude and encouragement to you; gratitude when you think of the way the Lord has led you and prospered you, and encouraged in view of the work he has made you the means of accomplishing. This makes me feel more like writing you a letter of congratulation than any thing else. While you have made great progress, yet there is so much to be done that it seems like only a beginning after all. I was so much impressed with the vastness of the work to be done last summer, as we crossed the mountain side, and under every green tree were temples and shrines and tokens of idol worship. Every community seemed to have its local gods in addition to its national ones. We have seen many poor ones turn from their devotions to their little wooden images, to worship the sun as it rises brightly in the east, with such earnestness as if they felt there was a power back of that great body that could help them.

"I used to watch the fishermen as they started out from shore in their little boats—strong, brave-looking men—but to them was no day calm enough to leave their gods on shore, or storm too fierce to start out under their protection. Hideous-looking images, some of them as large as themselves, are placed in the most prominent part of their boats. If they are fortunate enough to return to land, they offer their most grateful thanks for the favor received. If they are lashed by the waves and go down at sea, their friends offer the peace-offering to their offended god.

"On a large mountain, where many pilgrims are seen coming and going, we noticed a large rock, inclosed by a rustic fence, which seemed to be the object of interest. On inquiring the reason, we were told that the god of this mountain came down to visit it many times during the year, and always rested on this rock. Had they ever seen him? Some had seen him coming down on a wild boar. They knew he had been there and written on that rock with his fingers words which no one living could interpret. They had often watched for him, but found that he did not like to make his appearance at such times. I believe it would be less of a task to tell you what this people don't worship than to try to tell you what they do.

"All this shows how very unsatisfactory their worship and knowledge is, and their craving for something above and beyond themselves—that which is within your power to give them, dear sisters.

"The sight of all others that touched me most was the temple dedicated to the little children—the place where father and mother come when their hearts are bleeding over the death of their little ones; where they hang the bright clothes that they wore here, and the toys they loved to play with, in order to attract the attention of some deity supposed to preside over children in hades, when he makes visits to the temple to get their names. You, Christian mothers, lay your little ones away with the blessed assurance of meeting them again. These mothers have no such hope; if any, only a shadowy one of their being transformed into something else, somehow, somewhere.

"I wish I could write you much concerning the general work and the condition of things around us, but you know that missionaries' wives find so much "home missionary" work to do in their own families that it is but proper to leave all this to the more facile pens of the missionaries of your own Board. What we can write, therefore, goes to you more as that which comes from hearts in deep sympathy with your Christian work, as we remember that a great deal of that work falls to many wives and mothers, who are making earnest efforts to get a little time from other cares to think of this cause and pray for it; who practice many economies to send out and sustain these laborers abroad, and to inspire their own dear ones with a missionary spirit. Through you, at your annual gathering, I wish with all my heart to send greetings to all those sisters of the Church whose hearts will be in your meeting, and whose prayers will be for it, but who cannot themselves, for various reasons, be with you on such a 'mount of privileges.'

"On the very top of one large mountain we crossed was a beautiful little cluster of pine trees. They refreshed the eyes of many a weary one in the distance. Their shade was pleasant to rest under after climbing the long mountain. But as we went down the other side of the mountain our eyes were greeted by rows of beautiful palm trees in the valley. And it is a matter of congratulation to know that there will be so many who will be on the 'mount' with you and with Christ at this meeting, but we would not forget the trees of God which grow in the valley. And so would we ask God's blessings upon all the sisters attending the Convention, and upon all who would like to be there, but cannot. Yours in the work,

"MRS. A. D. HAIL."

THE YEAR'S HISTORY.

The year just closing brings us no special new feature in our foreign work. The work, though beset with some hindrances, has gone steadily forward with the same interest and earnestness. We have added no new missionaries to our list, but the faithful workers already enrolled are busy in Osaka, Wakayama, Shingu, Tanabe, laboring with this prayer on their lips: "Lord, pour down such a blessing upon us that there shall not be room to receive it."

OSAKA.

As this city was the first home of our missionaries, our prayers, our desires and blessings in the work, we will pause here to see Mrs. Drennan, in the school and among her classes.

The Wilhelma Girls' School, Osaka, Japan, was opened in No. 22 Concession, January 6, 1884, with four pupils—three in the school proper and one in the primary. During the year others were added, so that in June the school closed with 17 pupils. During the year 1885, and to the present date of '86, our school reports a total enrollment of 59, the present attendance being 41. Of these 26 are boarding pupils, 15 are day pupils, 11 are of the school proper, 30 are in the primary class. With the present attendance from the total enrollment, it leaves 18 withdrawn. Like the registrar of a school at home, you will find different reasons assigned. Some, removal from the city; some, change of residence; others, opposition of friends to Christianity; two have died; one married; one went to a government school for better accommodation; three were English half-day pupils. Of the boarding pupils, seven are partially supported; nine entirely supported. This includes six taken from the flooded districts; ten are entirely self-supporting.

This school is divided into three grades—a primary, intermediate, and advanced grade. These are doing good work in their respective studies, which includes, with but few exceptions, the same as are pursued in the corresponding departments of our home-land school, including Japanese history and composition. In all these grades we find the one Book, that is common to all, uniting hearts on land and sea, dictated and taught in both languages—the Bible. God bless this Book, with its teachings through the schools of Japan, and may it be the great power in breaking down all barriers to bringing this land out into Christian English light and fellowship. Since the school began this year six of the pupils have joined the Church; two await baptism. We learn from year to year that out of this school come some of the most earnest native helpers and workers. The older girls of the school are put to teaching in Sabbath afternoon classes; thus, while teaching others, they are becoming more familiar with Christian work. Their teacher says of these girls: "I feel they are growing in grace and such knowledge as will fit them for future usefulness." The younger ones are being taught with a view to taking like places in due time. Some who have been compelled to go to their homes from the school, or change residence to other parts, send evidence back by letters that their school-life was and is a great strength to them. I quote from a pupil to her teacher to prove this. . . . . .

I would like to speak of the closing examinations of this school, but to be brief, I will state that one day is given to Japanese studies and the next to English and translating. They have lessons, songs, recitations, etc., with something of their work, showing how skillful they are with their fingers.

All this growth and progress has advanced through much perplexity, inadequate accommodations and convenience of the school building, with the endless avenues through which Mrs. Drennan's work extends. There is so much I might report of this branch of the work that is worthy of notice and commendation, but we must visit her classes outside of the school-room.

IRREGULAR CLASSES.

These consist of a class of married women who have come to her house each morning for instruction in English, the Bible, and household duties; these are composed of the wives of government officers. Next a class of young men, numbering between thirty or forty, being taught in Bible and English; also a Sabbath afternoon class for the same. Out of these she has organized a Christian Endeavor Society, has introduced a Chautauqua Circle (of which I will give detail further on).

With this glimpse into Osaka, are you not proud of the work? Can we not truly say, "The field is ripe unto the harvest?" Does it not seem as if at no distant day these will be an English-speaking and God-worshiping people? Yes, if our prayer and effort are great enough to mold new Japan into Christ and his Church, then we need not fear the tread of Western materialism, with its warping influence, to sink the present hopeful Japan into a people that know not a loving God. Hear this sincere appeal for the work in Osaka. . . . . .

We bespeak for all of these means and the school the prayers of God's people, that they may continually be blessed as the forces which shall hasten the full coming of the Kingdom of Christ in this land of the Rising Sun.

WAKAYAMA.

Here we find Miss Orr and Miss Duffield, both well, happy, and heartily devoted to their individual work. The Church at this point has succeeded in procuring a permit for them to live in this place for a period of three years, which also gives them the privilege to travel through this province as they desire. Miss Orr's work is similar to that given in our last report, which is still developing, extending and accomplishing great good for the extension of the Master's work. As before stated, Miss Orr is not confined to Wakayama, but goes all through the province, distilling the truths of the gospel in whatever way it may present itself.

We find her through the day engaged assisting one hour and a half in the English school (which the Wakayama Church has lately organized), in Bible meetings and woman's meeting; this a knitting and crocheting school in which she teachers the Bible and Christian songs while plying the needles and learning the stitches and patterns. Let me read her own words of these meetings. . . . . .

Let us pray that the pattern of her life and words may be imitated as perfectly as the stitches of the work they learn.

Besides this class work there are many demands, which grow upon her in the interest of the work connected with the young and growing Church, lately established in this city, of which a missionary, writing back, said, "'Twas like one big family." Not only are her days well employed, but her evenings as well. Her programme for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings is vocal music from 7 to 8 o'clock. Thursday the prayer-meetings are at her house; these she wishes we could once in a while enjoy, being "a feast to the soul." Friday evenings to writing. Saturday and Sabbath, preaching services at the church. Then there are other hours devoted to the factory girls, individual Bible students, who are officers or high school students, whose time is occupied in other duties at the time of other class work; these are anxious for lessons in the English Bible. Here, as in other parts, Bible teaching and English are the growing features of the field.

Miss Duffield is here with Miss Orr since the close of school last year, devoting her time and strength to the study of the language, customs, and habits of the people. She looks forward with some anxiety to the completion of the three years of study, when she will be prepared to fill her place in the grand work of teaching these people "the old, old story." She has given us many pleasant letters of her experiences, with suggestions and instructions.

Remember that God has planted a work in Wakayama that must be watered by our prayers and brightened by the sunlight of our sympathies and courage.

SHINGU AND TANABE.

Though Miss Leavitt's work has largely been done in Osaka, at the present writing we find her in Shingu. We will review her ripened fields in each of these. While in Osaka, she was busily devoted in similar meetings as reported of the other missionaries—visiting from house to house, among the women, holding women's meetings, teaching in the Nago Machi ragged school (this is a district full of pauperism and degradation), explaining and teaching the Gospel of Luke in a Woman's Theological class of Osaka, giving lessons in foreign handiwork, thus reaching women and children in various ways for planting divine truths and leading them out of poverty and darkness.

In March just past she finished translating the book she began a year ago. As soon as this was finished she went to Shingu by the advice of the Mission and urgent call from one of the Church-members there to carry through some important work in the school and homes that was opened by the labors of the Rev. A. D. Hail and wife, while summering near this point in the mountains last year. During the summer the Christians built a little school-house (comically little, they tell us,) and started with nine girls whose parents supported their Japanese teacher, while the English was taught by Mrs. Hail until September, when they must return to Osaka.

Much good must have grown out of these seeds of the summer planting, for we find Miss Leavitt is "eating no idle bread" since her coming to Shingu. . . . . .

At Tanabe she gave us through a published letter her experience here. In all these varied experiences there is one central thought bearing with it the universal question: "How shall I find your God? Do tell me about him?" The Church, at this place, we understand, have a room and mean to start a kindergarten, but, for lack of a native Christian teacher, it is not in operation. Still comes the echo: "The harvest is ripe, the laborers few."

IN THE HOME IN JAPAN.

We have gone from port to port, from house to house, let us rest a while with Mrs. A. D. and J. B. Hail. These are the foreign mothers of Japan whose duties are yearly multiplying in the home and world around them. They each have told us that they do but little missionary work, as a mother's cares are increased tenfold, living in a land that knows no Sabbath nor God. They must ever be holding up a Christian home to the natives; living an example of what Christianity will do for the family; giving to the mothers in that land the example of what it is possible to make their homes and to train their children in the Christian way.

They have Sabbath-school classes, hold prayer-meeting Thursday afternoons, and in connection with this an hour given to industrial work.

The mothers on the Concession (four of them), to better educate their children, have organized a foreign school. They have thirteen children on low benches in a little room, whom they teach every day. Aside from these filled hours, they have written the Woman's Board many kind letters filled with valuable instruction and advice. We can truly say these women are living the Lord's command, "Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it."

I have reported so many ways and means by which those in the foreign field are bridging the gulf of heathenism and superstition which has so shadowed the wives, sisters, and children, and leading them to realize the beauty of our religion, the reality of a living God, and the value of the English language and literature. The latter is evidenced by the eagerness with which they grasped the movement of which was first started by some of Mrs. Drennan's bright, interesting young men, who for a while read privately, after which it was thought advisible to have a private circle; so notice was given to a few friends. The enrollment after a few meetings numbered fifty names. The enthusiasm and interest increased until the circle now numbers one thousand three hundred members. This number includes branch societies, as well as local ones, throughout the empire. This speaks flatteringly for the literary tastes of the Japanese.

A lack of books was the first drawback, but Dr. Vincent kindly offered to help in the translating of the readings. This will relieve the embarassment. Now the Chautauqua comes out regularly. Letters from all parts of Japan are received, making application for branch societies. In this circle men and women both unite. It has prompted many to send for Bibles, and come humbly asking for light. The Mission, who speak of it, say "it will be of incalculable worth in their work" in the different stations. I would like to speak of the foreign Thanksgiving and Christmas anniversaries lately held, but these will come out in leaflet form, as pleasant cullings for leisure moments, of which all can avail themselves.

The truths and principles of the word, going out from the various channels, surprise these strange people into solemn thought and questionings, thus into study and on into the glorious light and liberty of God's free grace. The fields are opening for scattering the seed; more, more helpers is still the cry from afar, and we are thankful and proud that the Church has responded heartily to the call. Four applicants (happy to welcome them to-day) have answered, "Lord, here I am"—the Misses Morgan, Watson, Mo.; Miss Westfall, Covington, Ohio; Miss Rena Rezner, Biggsville, Ill. After a thorough preparation of a course to prepare them to enter the work there, they will go to share the responsibilities of a missionary's life and work in foreign lands. The time for their going is of future decision, but while they remain with us in America may they be "abundant in labors for Jesus' sake," being ever ready to "spend and be spent in his service."

What shall I make a specialty of? This naturally is the first question of the missionary applicant. I answer for any future applicant, from the experience of the workers there, as follows:

A thorough study of the Bible and its teachings, with a clear understanding of theology, is the safest and most needed preparation for the work. As for the study of medicine or painting, we are told that there are just as good physicians there as we could send, and in sufficient number, too. As to painting, that is an art which seems primitive with the Japanese. While a knowledge of these are helps in the work, it is thought of far greater importance to put the time it would take in acquiring these upon the suggested "study," as this, with a finished education, is indispensable in the work.

NEEDS OF JAPAN.

1. The rapidly increasing work reviewed demands matured and prepared reinforcements. With so much to be done, and so few to do it, it suggests a tendency to weaken the physical condition of the few by overwork, be the constitution ever so vigorous. Time will come when those so earnest will be forced to rest; others must be ready to fill their places. and more than these, for the work will be expanding and reaching. These reinforcements must be preachers as well as teachers. One of our ladies, writing, says: "We need ministers—some one who can preach. I think if ministers could see the eager congregations without preachers, they would be applying by the scores."

2. They need a new, commodious building for our Girls' School, including all the apartments necessary for the accommodation, comfort, and equipment of such a building, with provisons of suitable quarters for the future as well as the present reinforcements. We have advised, planned, and hoped to have this building, ere this, but owing to present varied circumstances, it remains a hope of the future. With this prospective building, greater demands will be made upon us for educational appliances of all kinds. Early in the present year, a letter from the Secretary of the Mission suggested that any one desiring to make some special offering to the school, be encouraged to donate to it various presents to aid in its workings, such as "a set of good wall maps (I have an order at present from Mrs. Drennan for some), a globe, a library case, any articles of school furniture." To this I would add text-books of any kind, such as are used in our common schools for older scholars; for primary department, reading and spelling charts, books, cards, and pictures. These demands open a channel to those who are asking for a special object to maintain in any of the auxiliaries, bands, or by individuals.

These are some of the material wants, but to strengthen the material we must not forget the spiritual wants.

> "That, by which the whole round earth is every way > Bound by golden chains about the feet of God," prayer, mingled with true Christian sympathy for the anxiety, perplexity, and discouragements incident to this life.

Added to the discouragements of the closing year, are recorded that of

FLOODS AND CHOLERA.

"One touch of nature makes the whole world kin," and with these calamities, Japan was brought closer to us and we closer to Japan. Christians in the home-land and there, united their interests to aid those who had been made destitute and homeless by the flood. It has left hundreds homeless and penniless, but out of this distress comes some cheer, for it seems to have taught the natives the virtues of charity and love for one another and these may become the basis upon which to build other precious truths of Christianity.

In closing our report I feel I necessarily have given you but an imperfect representation of the vast work, with its ever-opening opportunities and great encouragements. I may have left out something I should have noted, or vice versa. The concentration unto a few sheets of paper of so many valuable, interesting, and blessed facts that have come to us from this Land of the Rising Sun is like trying to crowd Japan into a nutshell. We have crossed the mountains, through the valleys, halted in the plains, seen the darkness of benighted lives, heard the chorus from the cities, "Come over and help us." "What shall we do?"

> "Our world of woman's work is wide,
> And bounded not by narrow walls or selfish pride;
> But reaching far as reach the calls of human need,
> This is our world, and Faith its light and Love its creed."

To do our part in the work does not always mean the individual to go to Japan, for God does not call us all to go, but he calls us all to do our individual part.

With unceasing prayer upon our hearts for blessings upon our missionaries, and gratitude to God for his loving care in the past, let us reconsecrate ourselves to this vast work, remembering that Christ said: "Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall become one flock, one shepherd."

II.—PUBLICATION.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN:—Before entering upon a history of the year's work, we desire briefly to refer to our deceased brother, E. Waterhouse, Sr. He died on the 16th day of December, 1885, very suddenly of heart disease, at the age of sixty-nine years. His life, eventful in many respects, will not here be noticed further than to say that from early manhood he was a consistent and devoted member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. During most of the time he was also an elder, and often represented his congregation in the Presbytery, Synods, and General Assemblies of the Church. He was well informed upon the history and doctrines of his Church, and its relation to other ecclesiastical bodies. He gave liberally of his time and money toward the support of its enterprises. He was but a few years a member of the Board, but he brought with him in that position a familiarity with its previous history and a deep interest in its success. A man of but few words, he possessed strong common sense and a ripe judgment. His counsel was valuable, and his fidelity to his trust unwavering. He will long be remembered by what he has done.

The Board have elected as his successor Mr. John H. Reynolds, of Rome, Ga. He is in the prime of life; president of the First National Bank of that city, and has vindicated his business capacity by a successful business career. He is an elder, and is the son of an elder, in our Church. We have every assurance that he will fill well the position to which he has been called.

BUSINESS MANAGER.

During the month of March Mr. T. M. Hurst tendered his resignation as Agent of the Board, which was accepted. During the five and a half years of his business relations to us he has shown himself a true friend of the Church, a man of industry and integrity, and a true Christian gentleman. Our personal relations with him have been the most pleasant, and he carries with him into his new business our best wishes for his future prosperity. Mr. Jno D. Wilson, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., was elected to take his place. As to the fitness of the latter for the position, we have the most satisfactory assurances, both from our knowledge of the man and the recommendations of others.

THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN.

We have made special efforts during this year to increase the excellence of all our periodicals.

The Cumberland Presbyterian has been improved by the purchase of new type, the use of a better article of paper, and a very considerable increase in the quantity of reading-matter. This increase has been effected by the use of smaller type and by limiting the number of advertisements. The editorial work has commanded universal commendation. The contents of the paper have been the subject of unstinted praise from all sections of the Church. Its circulation is now about 10,300, an increase since last report of 800, which, considering the depression in business, and the fact that the paper has stood upon its merits, is encouraging. Each year's experience emphasizes the importance to the efficiency of the Church which we have heretofore claimed for this periodical.

Sunday-school Periodicals.

Early in the year Drs. Harris and Howard requested the Board to relieve them of the editing of the Sunday-school Comments, Rays of Light, and Lesson-Leaf. They insisted that the two departments of editorial work called for diverse thought and investigation; that the transition from the one to the other was often sudden and unpropitious; that their services were often demanded at the same time by both the Cumberland Presbyterian and some of these periodicals; that, in short, no one man, nor set of men could edit both, consistent with the greatest success of either. Yielding to this view of the matter, and knowing that the editing of the Sunday-school Comments and Rays of Light was in the line of work of Prof. R. V. Foster, D.D., of Cumberland University, and that as editor he had formerly given entire satisfaction to the Church, we determined to re-employ him. He thereupon resumed the editing of the periodicals mentioned, and his work has been commended by a continued increase of subscribers.

The Sunday-school Comments has a circulation of about 17,000; the Rays of Light, 10,500; Lesson-Leaf, 20,000.

The Gem and Our Lambs, under the very efficient management of Mrs. C. M. Harris, continue to grow in popularity and excellence. No periodical heretofore published by the Church has given more unqualified satisfaction than these.

The Gem has a circulation of 13,600, and Our Lambs 18,000.

We have been more liberal than formerly in expenditures on their illustrations, and desire to be more so as the ability of the house increases.

All of the periodicals, it will be noticed, have increased in circulation. We are not ashamed to compare them with those of any other religious denomination in the United States. The corps of editors is not surpassed by any. The editors are all devoted to the Church, are in the prime of life, industrious, and progressive, and enthusiastic in their work. In fact, the entire organization of the establishment is far more perfect than ever before. The editors, agent, book-keeper, superintendent, and proof-reader are all eminently fitted for their work, and the subordinate employees are satisfactory, so far as we know. All are working harmoniously, and, for so large a force—about fifty in number—we think the attaches of the establishment are quite remarkable for moral tone and efficiency.

The experience of the past twenty years has enabled us to gradually perfect this part of the ecclesiastical machinery, until now we see little left to change.

Books.

We had hoped by this time to have had in press the History of the Church, in course of preparation by B. W. McDonnold, D.D., but the magnitude of the work has exceeded the expectations even of the author. Resolved that it should be thorough and accurate, and superior in literary merit, we have not hesitated to extend the time for its preparation. We have found the patience of the Church fully adequate to this delay. Some portions of the work will be issued during the coming year.

We have in hand a manuscript, which will also be published during the year. Still another manuscript is in course of preparation, which will be issued soon.

On the subject of books we desire to say that it is the established policy of the Board, unless otherwise directed, to publish no books except good ones. No other policy will command the patronage of the Church, cultivate its reading taste, or build up a literature of which it will have any cause to be proud. To produce such books, we must employ the best writers, and pay them such price as will command the necessary time and effort to produce first-class work. Pursuing this policy, the Board intends during the year to employ at least two of the best writers in the Church, to write each a book on stipulated subjects.

We deem it necessary also to remind the Church of the importance of our younger men developing themselves into superior writers. Books, however excellent in thought, will not be read if deficient in style. Writing is an art, and to a large extent a vocation. In this, as in all other departments of human attainment, there can be no superiority except by long, persevering, and well-directed effort.

Our young men, laymen as well as ministers, must by the study of the best models, the exercise of their inventive genius and assiduous cultivation, prepare to stand in the front rank of authors, or our literature will be relegated by the reading public of the nineteenth century to an inferior rank in the order of merit.

Superintendent of Sabbath-schools.

The Assembly of 1883 created this office, and elected Rev. M. B. DeWitt, D.D., thereto, and appointed a committee, of which the Superintendent was made chairman, part of whose duty was to provide for his salary by collections from the Sabbath-schools or otherwise. Because of the failure of this committee to make any satisfactory provision for the salary, Brother DeWitt never entered actively upon his work. The Assembly of 1884 substituted the Board of Publication for the committee, and the Board and the Superintendent were left to provide a plan at discretion, and carry out the same. The Board has never been able to pay, or even guarantee, his salary, and the Superintendent has not been willing to enter upon the work without such guarantee. We hope, however, that the office will be continued, trusting that the means of calling its functions into active exercise may hereafter be provided.

Finances.

On this subject we have but little to say beyond what appears in the report of the Agent, which is herewith transmitted.

The House, as may be seen, has made a moderate profit. This profit could have been materially increased had we kept more prominently in view the making of money rather than furnishing the Church with superior publications, and otherwise promoting its work.

It will be seen also that while the amount of indebtedness owing by the Board is large, it is balanced by a corresponding amount due to it.

It will be noticed that the amount of job work done by the House is much greater than last year. The work turned out is strictly first-class, and is continually increasing.

The time is close at hand when the Church will have to provide herself with a much larger house than the one we now occupy, and which, being her own, will furnish us permanent quarters and more ample facilities.

The report of the Board, as Treasurer of the General Assembly, is hereto annexed.

Desiring to join you in thanksgiving for past successes, and in an invocation for the blessing of Providence on our future efforts, we remain fraternally yours,

Agent's Report.

To the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

Dear Brethren:—I herewith transmit to you our balance-sheet for the year ending April 30, 1886, from which may be gathered the financial results of another year's work. This shows a net profit for the year of $2,891.37, and at the same time shows an increased indebtedness over last year.

The amount we owe and the amount due us are unusually large, but the excess may be attributed largely to the following causes:

In the first place, we refunded to the General Assembly Fund the sum of $1,031.15, as per order of last General Assembly (see Minutes, page 20). During the year we made the plates of "The Gospel Shower," at a cost of $580.25, and besides this we paid $810.68 on Church history, and at the close of the year we have due us for job work—much of which is just being finished—about $3,000, from which the money should be realized at an early day. Besides, we have larger accounts due us from our Sunday-schools than ever before, every dollar of which will no doubt be paid at maturity.

Our work is growing, and its growth brings the necessity for more capital. On our old basis of work we might easily run without this, but with an enlarged work and enlarged expenses, we must have more money to meet the growing demand upon us, and this should come in the way of enlarged patronage from the Church.

Strong efforts should be made to enlist the hearty co-operation of our people in behalf of this work, and in my opinion the surest way to do this is to bring the importance of this work to their attention. Those who realize the importance of sustaining our publishing interest are they who do most to sustain it.

T. M. Hurst, Agent.

Auditor's Report.

I, J. W. Watkins, certify that I have audited the cash account of T. M. Hurst, Agent, for the year ending April 30, 1886, and find that the books have been correctly kept, and that proper vouchers are filed for all charges made. I also find that at the close of the fiscal year there remained in the hands of T. M. Hurst a balance in cash of $736.33, which has been turned over to Jno. D. Wilson, Agent, as per receipt exhibited to me.

III.—MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Board of Ministerial Relief herewith submits its Fifth Annual Report:

With great pleasure we announce that the year has been marked with most encouraging developments in behalf of this cause. The attention given it by the last General Assembly was very helpful in awakening the Church to a proper sense of its importance. The designation of the fourth quarter for collections has tended to elevate the cause to the rank it deserves among the benevolences of the Church. We earnestly hope this Assembly will give it an impetus that will aid in making the next year a still further improvement over the past.

Hitherto the burden of our appeals has been "a contribution, however small, from every congregation in the Church." With this appeal we still come in behalf of our suffering brethren. In addition, we ask for larger offerings. Those whose giving to this cause has become an established thing could doubtless increase their gifts. In this cause we have committed to us as a Church a most sacred trust. It becomes us therefore to devise liberal things and to make our offerings commensurate with the needs of those who in the days of their strength withheld nothing of labor or of sacrifice from our Lord's altar.

During the year closing May 1, contributions have been received from four hundred and seventy-eight congregations, representing ninety-nine out of 118 Presbyteries, and the entire list of twenty-four Synods. Offerings have also come from six Sabbath-schools, two meetings of Presbyteries, one elders' and deacons' convention, and seventy-three individuals. The offerings of the latter have grown into a very considerable sum, and many are in the habit of sending a liberal amount every year. This custom is worthy of imitation, and must bring joy to the hearts of those who practice it. To encourage the young people in the Sabbath-schools to give to such a cause is also a beautiful custom, and we hope it will be generally adopted. For this cause to receive contributions in the fifth year of its existence from nearly five hundred of our congregations, distributed throughout almost one hundred of our Presbyteries, is indeed a most gratifying exhibit. It shows plainly that interest in the cause of relief is rapidly becoming co-extensive with the boundaries of the Church.

The development from year to year has been as follows: First report, 90 congregations, 46 Presbyteries; second report, 40 congregations, 33 Presbyteries; third report, 93 congregations, 47 Presbyteries; fourth report, 250 congregations, 73 Presbyteries. A year ago we reported an amount greater than the three previous years combined. This year we report an amount which lacks only a little of being equal to the receipts of the four former years combined. We thank God and take courage.

At the same time it must be remembered that this cause is yet in its infancy in our Church. To develop and strengthen it requires close attention and earnest effort. We are doing far less for our suffering brethren than we ought to do. We ought to have not less than ten thousand dollars annually to distribute among them. Toward this standard we hope the Church is rapidly and surely approaching. The sum of the contributions named in this report can easily be doubled next year. We ask that an earnest and systematic effort be made to accomplish this most desirable result.

We regard the accumulation of a Permanent Fund as an essential part of a sound financial policy in administering this beneficence. To this fund all legacies and bequests should be appropriated, unless otherwise directed. The Miss Shaw bequest has been settled in full, and the amount has been invested. We have information of another for a small amount, which will be paid soon. We hope this cause will be thus remembered by many who are in this way disposing of what the Lord has given them.

We submit to the General Assembly whether it would not be wise to transfer to the Permanent Fund a portion of the current receipts each year, say ten per cent., more or less, as in the judgment of the Board the interests concerned will allow. If cases of great emergency should arise, this portion of the fund could be drawn upon, while bequests must necessarily be kept sacred. If no portion of the fund is needed for emergencies, it will still be accomplishing its intended purpose by yielding interest. We ask permission from the General Assembly to adopt this policy.

As in former years we submit herewith for your inspection the applications for aid which have come from the Presbyteries, that you may have the fullest information as to the facts guiding us in the distribution of the money intrusted to our hands. Eight names have been added to the list of beneficiaries since our last report. Five have gone to their heavenly abode of rest and plenty. Two no longer need aid from this source. There are now twenty-six names upon the list.

While leadership in this cause necessarily devolves upon the ministers, and we must always look to them as the channel through which the claims of their needy brethren may be brought before the people, still we desire to enlist the elders of the entire Church in active co-operation with this Board. The elders are relied upon to plan for the support of the active ministry, and there are manifest reasons why they should give particular attention to the wants of disabled ministers, or the families of deceased ministers. We ask this General Assembly to take such steps as will enlist the eldership of the entire denomination in behalf of this cause.

The women of the Church can also fill an important place in this movement on behalf of the needy ministry, and the widows and orphans of ministers gone to their reward. Christian women are peculiarly fitted for this form of benevolence, and we hope that through pastors and sessions they may be brought actively into co-operation with this Board. At the proper time we will indicate the methods by which they may assist us.

During the year the Board of Publication has done about seventy-five dollars' worth of printing free of cost to the treasury of this Board. This kindness we recognize thankfully on behalf of those in need who receive thereby the more for their own comfort.

The Rev. J. E. Jenkins, of Princeton, Ind., has resigned his position as a member of the Board, and Elder Laban M. Rice has been elected to fill the vacancy. We ask your approval of this action.

We submit herewith the Annual Report of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Board, showing contributions by congregations and Presbyteries, Sabbath-schools and individuals.

Assuring the General Assembly and the entire Church that the members of this Board are deeply solicitous to do whatever they can in behalf of this noble enterprise, this report is

Respectfully submitted.

GENERAL STATEMENTS.

The purpose for which this Corporation is formed is to receive, hold, convey, and disburse such real and personal property as may be given by will or otherwise to it, or acquired by it in any legitimate way, for the relief and support of disabled ministers and missionaries, and of the needy widows and orphans of deceased ministers and missionaries, or of such other persons as may be dependent upon said ministers and missionaries.

Appropriations from the funds of the Corporation shall be made alone, first, to such ministers as are members in good standing of some Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, they having fully consecrated themselves, since entering said ministry, to the active duties thereof in said Church, and who are not able to support themselves by any suitable vocation of life, and to such missionaries as have been appointed to work in Home or Foreign fields by the recognized authorities of said Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and who have faithfully discharged the duties assigned them during the time of their appointment, and who are not able to support themselves by any suitable vocation in life; and, second, that so far as may be consistent with the wants of disabled ministers and missionaries, the Board may also furnish aid to the widows and orphans of ministers and missionaries aforesaid, and to such other person or persons as may be, or may have been, dependent upon said ministers and missionaries.

RULES FOR DISBURSING FUNDS.

IV.—CORRESPONDENCE.

[There is nothing in my hands this year which properly belongs under this head. Believing, however, that a few items which have been gleaned from correspondence with the proper officers of the Presbyterian Alliance would be of general interest, I have taken the liberty to insert the same.—T. C. B., S. C.]

PRESBYTERIAN ALLIANCE.

Organized, London, July 21–23, 1875. First General Council, Edinburgh, July 3–10, 1877. Second General Council, Philadelphia, September 23—October 3, 1880. Third General Council, Belfast, Ireland, June 24—July 3, 1884.

PREAMBLE TO CONSTITUTION.

WHEREAS, Churches holding the Reformed Faith, and organized on Presbyterian principles, are found, though under a variety of names, in different parts of the world; and,

WHEREAS, Many of these were long wont to maintain close relations, but are at present united by no visible bond, whether of fellowship or of work; and,

WHEREAS, In the providence of God, the time seems to have come when they may all more fully manifest their essential oneness, have closer communion with each other, and promote great causes by joint action;

It is agreed to form a Presbyterian Alliance, to meet in General Council from time to time, in order to confer on matters of common interest, and to further the ends for which the Church has been constituted by her Divine Lord and only King.

In forming this Alliance, the Presbyterian Churches do not mean to change their fraternal relations with other Churches, but will be ready, as heretofore, to join with them in Christian fellowship, and in advancing the cause of the Redeemer, on the general principle maintained and taught in the Reformed Confessions that the Church of God on earth, though composed of many members, is one body in the communion of the Holy Ghost, of which body Christ is the Supreme Head, and the Scriptures alone are the infallible law.

ARTICLES.

I. DESIGNATION.—This Alliance shall be known as "The Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian system."

II.—MEMBERSHIP.—Any Church organized on Presbyterian principles, which holds the supreme authority of the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments in matters of faith and morals, and whose creed is in harmony with the Consensus of the Reformed Confessions, shall be eligible for admission into the Alliance.

III.—THE COUNCIL.—

(1) Its Meetings.—The Alliance shall meet in General Council, ordinarily, once in three years.

(2) Its Constituency.—The Council shall consist of Delegates, being ministers and elders appointed by the Churches forming the Alliance; the number from each Church being regulated by a plan sanctioned by the Council, regard being had generally to the number of congregations in the several Churches. The Delegates, as far as practicable, to consist of an equal number of ministers and elders. The Council may . . . . invite Presbyterian brethren not Delegates . . . . to read papers.

(3) Its Powers.—The Council . . . . shall not interfere with the existing Creed or Constitution of any Church in the Alliance, or with its internal order or external relations.

Chairman of General Committee,
HENRY A. BOARDMAN, D.D., LL.D., Philadelphia.
Chairman of Programme Committee,
PHILIP SCHAFF, D.D., LL.D., New York.
Chairman of Business Committee,
GEORGE JUNKIN, ESQ., Philadelphia.
Clerks of Council,

From the foregoing it will be seen that the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, since it has as many as two thousand five hundred congregations, is entitled to thirty-two delegates. The next Council meets in the city of London, England, 1888. It is expected that the delegates sent by each Church shall be composed of about the same number of ministers and laymen. The Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D., Evansville, Ind., who is a minister in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, is now a member of the Executive Committee.

V.—EDUCATION.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

The Board of Education hereby submits to your reverend body its Annual Report. Through the past year, as well as through all others since its existence, the Board has been embarrassed with serious difficulties. The greatest of all is the difficulty of getting the claims of the Board fairly before the Church. It has not, until the last two years, been given a special quarter for collection, and consequently has not received the attention it should. We know that an interest such as this should be will not take shape and grow into vast proportions in a day. Still when we consider the demands for an educated ministry, and see so many good young men kept from the halls of our colleges and universities only for lack of means, we are astonished that our good people move so slowly in this work.

There are two chapters in our Church history that need to be written and well studied just now. One on the trials of our young men and boys struggling to get into the ministry; another on the trials of the teachers struggling to help them. These two chapters would contain a history of the real battle-ground of our Church to-day. We have an abiding confidence in the generosity of our Church, and feel sure that when duty to our institutions and duty to our young men are seen, there will be a hearty response from the good men and women of the Church.

CONDITION OF CHURCH SCHOOLS.

So far as heard from, the Church schools are in a prosperous condition.

Trinity University reports eighteen probationers for the ministry enrolled. A new building is in course of erection. It will be completed this year, and when done will be one of the handsomest in that great State. "The productive endowment is now about thirty thousand dollars, and is steadily increasing." The catalogue for this year will show about two hundred and fifty students.

Lincoln University has ten probationers enrolled. They pay no tuition, and board at very reasonable rates. A quotation from President McGlumphy's letter will perhaps best show the condition of the school. "We have had thus far a very pleasant year. Every thing considered we are doing as well as could reasonably be expected."

Bethel College is enjoying a high degree of prosperity. During the present year tuition amounting to about three hundred and fifty dollars has been given to probationers for the ministry. The trustees will, before the fall term begins, put additional rooms to their already commodious building.

ENDOWMENT AGENT.

In June last the Board, in pursuance to the order of the General Assembly, employed the Rev. J. S. Grider as agent for the endowment of Cumberland University. The following is the agreement between the Board and Brother Grider:

"The Board of Education, in pursuance of the action of the General Assembly, 1885, does hereby employ and engage the services of the Rev. Jesse S. Grider as agent for the purpose of raising the endowment of the Theological Department of Cumberland University upon the following terms and conditions, that is to say:—

"1. The employment shall be for an indefinite time, and at a salary at the rate of $1,800 per annum, payable monthly, and in addition thereto his necessary traveling expenses. The salary and expenses to be paid out of the amount raised by the agent.

"2. That the mode and manner of raising said endowment be left to the discretion of the agent, he making report from time to time, and conferring with the Board as to the progress of the work.

"3. That the whole time of said agent be devoted to this work at as early a day as practicable, and in the meantime he shall be entitled to receive of the salary in proportion to the time occupied in the work, and the traveling expenses actually incurred."

Owing to previous arrangements he could not enter upon the work until October, 1885, since which time we have had bi-monthly reports from him, and are glad to state that he is succeeding beyond our most sanguine expectations.

His report for six months, as audited by the Board, is as follows:

Cash collections	$ 933 10
Notes	2,020 00
Promises	2,830 00
Bequests	21,500 00
Total	$27,283 10

Of the cash collected part of it is now in the hands of the University Treasurer. The balance has been used by the Board in paying salary and expenses of agent. The sum of forty-five dollars was due the agent at last report. The notes spoken of are on good men, most of them bearing interest, and on short time. The promises are regarded very good. There is reason to believe that some of them will be met at an early date. Of the bequests, one of them represents almost the last act in the life of a good man. He loved the Church, and labored for it while in life, and now that he sleeps his labor goes on.

When we consider the work of the past half year in connection with the stringency of the times, we feel that the Church has abundant reason to praise God and be encouraged in this department of labor, which promises so much for the future.

Treasurer's Report.

As no report from the Board of Education has ever been published in the Minutes of the General Assembly, or through any other channel, we deem it proper that a statement of our work from the beginning should be given to the Church.

J. C. PROVINE, Treasurer of the Board.

It will be seen from the above that the Board has adopted the plan of lending money. If we had a few thousand dollars to use in this way, it could be made of incalculable worth to the Church. It is well known by all who have given the matter attention that there are few young men who would not complete a good course before leaving school if they could only be kept in after entering. Financial embarrassments drive them out to work. They become attached to congregations, and congregations become attached to them, and they rarely return to finish what may have been a well begun preparation. Will not our Churches, within the next few months, put the money into the hands of the Board?

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF CUMBERLAND UNIVERSITY.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in session at Sedalia, Mo.:

The Trustees of Cumberland University submit the following report for the college year ending June 3, 1886:

1. The health and deportment of students have been excellent. There has occurred no death and no serious case of illness, and no case calling for discipline.

2. The attendance is not quite so large for this as for the preceding year. The catalogue will show in the general summary a decrease of nineteen. The decrease is in the Preparatory, Academic, and Theological Schools; the increase in the Law School. The last annual catalogue showed seventy-two young men here studying for the ministry. The forthcoming catalogue will show sixty-two, or a loss of ten. There is every indication, however, that a larger number than ever before will be in attendance at the fall opening of the University.

3. There is much that might be said on the subject of endowment, but all that could with propriety be said here will be brought before the General Assembly in the Report of the Board of Education. It is deemed best to omit the whole subject in this report. It is evident from facts within the knowledge of the Trustees that the first year's labor of Brother Grider (the Endowment Agent appointed by your reverend body a year ago) has borne fruit greatly beyond what the most hopeful looked for. The Lord seems to be directing him in the accomplishment of a work which has for so many years been the subject of the greatest anxiety. The Board of Trustees feel assured that he will receive the commendation of your reverend body and the prayers of the whole Church for his continued success.

4. The outlook of the University is exceedingly encouraging. Its work is more thorough than ever before, and more than ever it now deserves the warm support of its patrons and friends, and especially of the Church, which it has always served, and to which it is at all times loyal.

Respectfully submitted.

ANDREW B. MARTIN,
President Board of Trustees of Cumberland University.

A. F. CLAYWELL,
Secretary Board of Trustees of Cumberland University.

*From former reports

The reports from the Stated Clerks show that 120 ministers bore letters of dismissal and recommendation at the time said reports were forwarded. Only a small number of these had had time to join other Presbyteries when the reports were made out. Still, only one half of the number has been added to the list of ordained ministers. Several were stricken from the roll who did not bear letters of dismissal. This was caused, no doubt, from inaccuracies of Stated Clerks of Presbyteries. There are, it is confidently believed, at least 1,600 ordained ministers. The entire tabular exhibit for the year, as will be seen by comparison with previous years, gives most gratifying results. During the year 14,356 were added on examination. The sum total of membership, too, is the largest by several thousand that has ever been reported. To ascertain accurately the amounts contributed to Missions, Education, Publication, and Ministerial Relief, see the reports of those Boards respectively, for in many cases money was sent to these Boards directly, and was not reported to Stated Clerks of Presbyteries. Two Presbyteries—Buffalo Gap and Florida—give no report as to membership. In getting the sum total of the membership 300 were added for those Presbyteries. It will also be seen that several Presbyteries made no reports for 1886. Previous reports were substituted. Had they reported, and had the ratio of increase been the same with them as with the Presbyteries which did report, the sum total of the membership would have been at least 140,000.

Statistics of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored.

The last General Assembly directed the Stated Clerk to embody in these Minutes the statistics of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored. A faithful effort was made to obtain said statistics, but they could not be had with accuracy. From the most reliable information at hand the following, it is believed, is a close approximation: Ordained ministers, 200; licentiates, 225; candidates, 200; Presbyteries, 20; Synods, 4; General Assembly, 1; and communicants, 13,000.

The General Assembly, in 1883, directed the Stated Clerk to close the year the first day of May. See Minutes for that year, page 44. The foregoing, therefore, shows the financial standing of each Presbytery on May 1, 1886. But all Presbyteries which have paid their dues since that time will, of course, receive the Minutes for this year. The reception of the Minutes is evidence of the payment of Contingent Tax. T. C. BLAKE, Stated Clerk.
